

INDEX TO CONTENTS.

xiii

CHAPTER XI.

FROM GIRLHOOD TO WOMANHOOD.

PAGE

- Mamma not well—Gladys sympathizes—Understanding the physical nature—Uses of different organs explained—Change at womanhood—Mothers' foolish fear—Injury through ignorance—Years to recover—Do mothers love their children? 95

CHAPTER XII.

A HASTY WORD.

- Gladys' discovery—Friend in trouble—By the river—Much frightened—A fearful untruth—Befriended—Hot drink and foot-bath—Forced home—Doctor called—Few months' sickness—A young life gone 104

CHAPTER XIII.

THE BOYS WHO SMOKE.

- Seen from the window—Sharing cigarettes—Smoking lightly thought of—Observations in Chicago schools—Women the rescue force—Doctors' opinions—What girls can do—Woman's responsibility for evil—Strange things found—Anti-cigarette society—Effects of cigarette smoking... 111

CHAPTER XIV.

A NAMELESS CHILD.

- Strange statement at school—Gladys puzzled—Mamma sought—Sewing aside—More queer questions—Home knowledge not abused—Digested and indigested truth—Why everything must have a papa and mamma—Life germ in flowers and fruits—Bird life—An immortal soul—Parents' debt to the child—God's creative plan; so beautiful, so perfect—Sin leaves a scar—The world's injustice—God's goodness 122