Good cleared land, with a dwelling and good bath and out houses upon it, can be purchased in desirable localities at from £4 to £10 Stg. per acre. Farm hands can readily obtain work at good wages. Among the inducements offered to intending Emigrants, by the Government, is

A FREE GRANT OF LAND (WITHOUT ANY CHARGE WHATSOEVER.)

FLOUR AND MEAL.

The produce market generally has been dull during the past few weeks. Exportation from the leading grain centres of the West, in view of the approach of winter and the closing of navigation, has been very active. Hence all the distributing points are over-loaded with supplies. Millers in Ontario have procured wheat from the Western States cheaper than they could buy in the Province. This has of course tended to keep down prices here.
