 "ELEPHANT" Enamels.
 "AMBERITE" Varnishes.

There are some Paints on the market that cost more than the above Brands but there are none better. This statement surprises you but the explanation is simple.

The "ELEPHANT" Brand has been used all over the world for nearly 50 years. It was good at the start. It is better than ever now. We believe in paying Expert Paint Makers. Other people may believe in paying professional "Ad" writers but we leave you to judge which is best for the purchaser.

White Swan Soap will make your damask and fine linen as white as snow KAMLOOPS.

Rev. C. Ladner, pastor.

The pastor writes: We have raised here for the Century Fund the sum of $211.00, which has been applied to the reduction of the debt on our church property. In addition to this amount we have raised and paid towards our debt since July, $582.00, making a total of $793.00. We hope by the last of October to pay the balance of the debt, $375.00. Our people have done well.

We are now holding united special meetings. Last week in our church, this week in the Presbyterian. The Methodists, Presbyterians and Baptists are with us. Meetings are really good. We expect conversions. The Lord grant a blessed revival.

White Swan Soap will make your damask and fine linen as white as snow. KASLO.

Rev. J. A. Wood, pastor.

(Received too late for January issue.)

The Christmas anniversary of the Kaslo Methodist Sunday school was held on the evening of December 27th ult., in the church, and was in every respect a most successful affair. Promptly at 8 o'clock the choir was taken by the superintendent, Mr. W. J. Green, who performed the duties of that office in a most efficient manner. The meeting was opened by the singing of a hymn led by the children and was heartily joined in by the audience, followed by prayer led by the pastor.

The chairman then called on the pastor, Rev. Mr. Wood, for an address.

whereupon he, in his usual happy style, reviewed the progress of the school during the past year and tendered a well-merited word of praise to the teachers and officers for their ability, devotion to, and punctuality in connection with the work undertaken by them.

The Sunday school, since its organization under the able management of Mr. Green as superintendent, has continued steadily to progress. Mr. Passage, the secretary-treasurer, was then called on for his report, which also gave evidence of the prosperity of the school financially as well as spiritually. The superintendent's address was next in order, in the course of which he took occasion to offer a word of praise to pastor and the teachers and officers for their fidelity; and thanks to the parents of the children for their encouragement and sympathy. Master Fred Green sang a solo in good form; Miss Dora Geary contributed a recitation "Nobody's Child" very acceptably, and several of the smaller children also contributed recitations.

A cantata, "Santa Claus's Surprise Party," was next in order and was delivered in excellent style without a hitch, at the conclusion of which the venerable Santa distributed the presents and sweets to the children. The entertainment was then brought to a close by singing the National Anthem and pronouncing the benediction.

The house was literally packed with people, and every one was delighted with the evening's entertainment.

The week before Christmas Ladies' Aid held a sale of work at which they cleared $100.
