

Strangers and new comers feel at home with us.

For Everybody.

On Thursday, March 28, D. V., a Sacred Cantata, "From Cross to Crown," by Edmund Rogers, will be given in the Church, by the Choir, with the assistance of a few friends. There will also be a short miscellaneous programme between the parts, during which Miss Susie Webb, violiniste, will play one or two numbers.

"The Baptist Times and Freeman" in commenting on what it regards as the phenomenal growth of American Baptists, has these complimentary words to say:—"This increase, unlike the growth of the Popish Church in America, is not due to immigration, from which our denomination gains very little. The secret is not in the learning or eloquence of the ministry, or the social state of the churches, but in keeping to the everlasting Gospel with fewer novel vagaries of doctrine than in other sects."

The Examiner:—"There is no such thing as negative influence. We are all positive in the place we occupy, making the world better or making it worse."

It is not necessary to be born highly, or to be educated liberally, or to be richly endowed, or to be highly eminent, to enter the Kingdom of God; nor is there anything in the tenor of the whole discourse on the Mount to mark out any distinction of class, for every man is included in these suggestive and eulogistic words of Christ, "Ye are the Salt of the Earth."—Dr. E. E. Chivers.

Rev. L. D. Morse our returned missionary, speaks for us at our Mission Band Service, on Sunday afternoon, March 31st. We look forward with great pleasure to his visit among us.

The Concert given by the children of our Sunday School, in aid of the library fund, was successful in every way. The vestry was packed with eager listeners. Last Friday evening the concert was repeated. The children and those who trained them have our thanks.

It has been said "Most people follow their consciences as a man follows a wheelbarrow pushing it before him the way he wants it to go."

Applications for Sittings should be made to Deacon Jas McPherson. The seats are assigned, not rented. Each holder of a sitting is expected to be a contributor.

THIS CHURCH IS SUPPORTED by the voluntary contributions of the people. Every member of this church is expected voluntarily to subscribe towards the expenses of the church whatever sum it is in his or her power to give. Envelopes are provided and can be had from the Financial Secretary. All bills, accounts and monies contributed, donated or raised by and for the church, are to be handed to G. R. Hoben, Fin. Sec'y.

Families having cases of sickness or distress will please send word at once to the pastor, or one of the Deacons. You are urged to use the information cards in pews. If you are not a regular member of some other city congregation, you are cordially invited to come with us and find a permanent home.

"Seek ye first the Kingdom of God."—Matt. 6:33.
