MR. JOHN T. WYLDE.

MR. JOHN T. WYLDE is a leading man in perhaps more different departments than any other man in Nova Scotia. To begin with, he is Secretary of the Halifax Club and President of the Stadley Quoit Club. In connection with the latter, one of the oldest and most successful clubs in the Province, Mr. Wylde has been for many years not only the best player, but the leading spirit in maintaining the constant and never-failing good humour that characterizes the Saturday afternoon meetings. Mr. Wylde is also well-known as the best whist player, and one of the best chess-players in the province, and was one of the representatives of Canada in the recent International chess match with the States. Mr. Wylde also takes a prominent part in church matters, and is Treasurer of the Church Endowment Fund.
