

The illustration features the word 'THE' in a simple serif font above the word 'PORTFOLIO' in a large, bold, blackletter-style font. The 'P' is particularly large and ornate, with a leafy branch extending from its base. To the right of the text, there is a detailed illustration of a glowing oil lamp resting on an open book. The lamp has rays of light emanating from it. The entire title and illustration are enclosed within a decorative horizontal frame with scrollwork at the ends.
