CAUTION.

CAUTIUN.

CAUTIUN.

BEING credibly informed that in this city, and elsewhere, agents of Protestant Book Publishers are going about amongst Catholies, endeavoring to procure subscribers for works, (in numbers) by representing themselves as Agents for the Sale of our publications, we caution Catholies against them.

To prevent imposition for the future, Agents employed by us, will have a written certificate. Parties desirous of subscribing for our works, will be careful to see that our names are on the cover.

We have seen Histories of Ireland circulated by these worthies, which are full of lies. We do not object to their selling their Books the best way they can, but we caution them against using our names for the purpose.
