

ARTICLE 31

Termination

This Convention shall remain in force until terminated by one of the States. Either State may terminate the Convention, through diplomatic channels, by giving notice of termination at least six months before the end of any calendar year after the expiration of the fifth year after the year of the entry into force. In such event the Convention shall cease to have effect:

- (a) in respect of tax withheld at the source on amounts paid or credited on or after the first day of January in the calendar year next following that in which the notice of termination has been given;
- (b) in respect of other taxes for taxation years beginning on or after the first day of January in the calendar year next following that in which the notice of termination has been given.
