

9-10 EDWARD VII., A. 1910.

COLOMBIA.—British subjects proceeding to the Republic of Colombia must provide themselves with passports, visés by the Colombian Minister or by a Consul of the Republic in Canada. For travelling in the interior it is advisable to obtain a special passport from a British Consul (charge, sixty cents.) Immigrants without resources must be provided with a passport issued gratis by the Colombian Consul at port of departure.

COREA.—Passports are not required within a radius of 100 li (33 miles) from the open ports. Persons travelling in the interior must obtain a passport through the British Consul. (Fee 3.50 yen, about $1.75.)

CUBA.—Although passports are not legally necessary, travellers are advised to carry them. Persons intending to reside in Cuba for any length of time should have their names registered at the British Consulate-General.

DENMARK.—No regulations in force. But passports or similar documents may be required by the Police from persons accepting employment in Denmark before furnishing them with an "opholdsbog" (situation book), and also from music hall artistes.

Iceland.—No regulations in force.

St. Thomas.—No regulations in force. A local government passport must, however, be procured when leaving the island, the cost of which varies according to destination.

DOMINICAN REPUBLIC.—Passport necessary. In order to leave the country a Dominican passport must, in addition, be obtained, for which a fee of about $5 is charged.

ECUADOR.—See Peru.

EGYPT.—Passports are not required by law, but travellers are advised to carry them. For travelling in other parts of the Ottoman dominions, see Turkey.

Sudan.—Persons desiring to enter the Sudan, travelling third-class, unless they are officials of the government, or are travelling on government warrants, or are bona fide natives of the Sudan, must apply for permits to the Sudan Agent, Cairo, the Sudan Government Railway's Agent at Alexandria, the Sudan Government Agent at Suez, the Governor of Halfa, the Governor of the Red Sea Province, or the Inspector at Port Sudan.

Persons proceeding south or west of El Obeid or Bara must obtain a permit from the Governor of Kordofan or his representative at El Obeid or Bara.

All Europeans are recommended to report their arrival, personally or in writing, at any place where an official holding the post of Sub-Mamur, or any superior post, is stationed.

FRANCE.—The possession of a passport may save inconvenience, since evidence of identity may at any time be required.

If produced as evidence of identity at a Post Office the passport may require to be countersigned by the British Consul for the district.

For permanent residence, or in order to exercise profession or trade, a declaration furnishing particulars with respect to the family, nationality, profession, &c., of the person making the declaration, is required to be made at the Mairie of the Commune within a few days of arrival.
