

B I O G R A P H Y

VIVIAN, REGINALD PERCY, M.D., (Durham)

Born October 16, 1902, at Barrie, Ontario. Son of Reginald P. Vivian and Annie May Brodie, both Canadian. Educated at Barrie Public and Collegiate Institute, and University of Toronto. Degree: Doctor of Medicine. Married December 7, 1926 to Judith, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. F.H. Brewin of Toronto, Ontario. Three children: Peter Brewin, Ann Blair (Mrs. L.W. Morris) and Judith Elizabeth. Religion: Anglican. Physician, M.L.A., County of Durham, Ontario, 1943-48; Minister of Health and Public Welfare, 1943-45; Minister of Health, 1945-46. President of the Province of Quebec Division, Canadian Red Cross Society, 1954-57. Member: University Club of Toronto, University Club of Montreal, Montreal Indoor Tennis Club and Country Club, Ottawa, Ont. Professor and Chairman of the Department of Health and Social Medicine, McGill University, Montreal. First elected to House of Commons, as Progressive Conservative member for Durham at general election, June 10, 1957. Re-elected in the general election, March 31, 1958.

Dr. Vivian served on the Canadian Delegation to the 13th Session of the General Assembly of the United Nations, and was our representative on the Second Committee which deals with Economic and Financial matters. His wide knowledge of this field was further broadened by his experience as Canadian observer at the 27th Session of the Economic and Social Council held in Mexico City earlier this year.