NATIONAL DISASTERS

ST. JEAN-VIANNEY—EXPRESSION OF SYMPATHY TO STRICKEN FAMILIES—GOVERNMENT ASSISTANCE

Hon. Robert L. Stanfield (Leader of the Opposition): Mr. Speaker, before voicing my first question, may I ask the Prime Minister whether he would make a statement concerning the disaster which occurred last night at St. Jean-Vianney, near Chicoutimi?

On behalf of the official opposition I wish to extend our most sincere sympathy as well as our pledge of solidarity to the stricken families.

Right Hon. P. E. Trudeau (Prime Minister): Yes, Mr. Speaker, I certainly can answer this question.

As soon as the federal government heard the news, I sent a telegram to the mayor of St. Jean-Vianney, in which I stated the utter dismay of this government and of the Canadian population generally. I discussed the matter at length this morning with the hon. member for Lapointe (Mr. Marceau) and with the Minister of National Defence (Mr. Macdonald) and it seems that units of the Canadian Armed Forces are already there busy with rescue operations. There are helicopters and medical support staff on the scene. They are acting on a voluntary
