

trolled countries. The Baltic refugees in Sweden include textile, metal and construction workers of high standing, and experts in poultry, horticulture, apiculture and dairying.

A statement by Dr. Keenleyside indicates that this situation is being given favourable consideration by the Immigration Branch.

Recommendations

1. Continued expansion and activity of the Immigration Branch including—

Study of regulations concerning deportation.

Repeal of P.C. 2115—restricting Chinese families.

Admission of Estonians from Sweden.

2. Organization of a co-ordinating committee with representatives from Immigration, Labour, Health and Welfare and Citizenship.

3. Admission of a greater diversity of occupational skills and some of the highly trained experts in the D.P. camps.

4. Strengthening of the work of the Citizenship Branch, particularly in provision of educational material and liaison work.

5. Prompt and generous contributions to I.R.O.

All of which is respectfully submitted.
