Honourable Sir;-

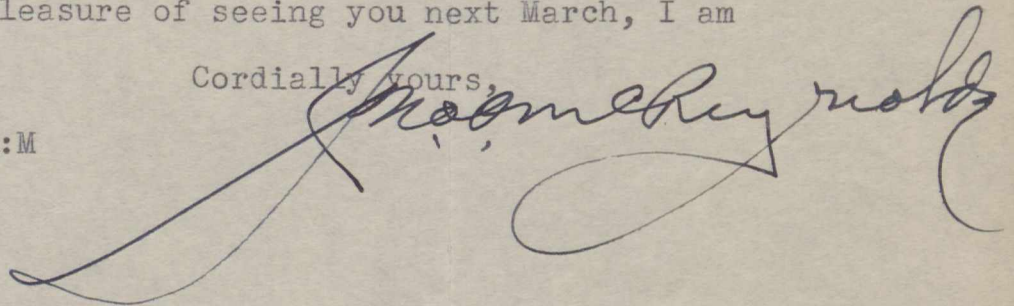

Your kind letter of November the 4th has been received, and I am writing at once to express my appreciation of your prompt and courteous response.

We shall be very happy to have you as a distinguished guest during the IV Pan-American Medical Congress, and it will be perfectly all right for you to delay your final decision until January.

With best wishes for your continued good health and prosperity and looking forward to the pleasure of seeing you next March, I am

Cordially yours,

JOMcR:M

B. F.
in January.
