

W. B. Baikie, Esq.,
M o n t r e a l.

Dear Mr. Baikie,

RE. MORIN VS. WALTER

Counsel have now decided that this case must have a printed factum. This, with incidental disbursements, will require probably say five hundred dollars. Another five hundred dollars will doubtless be very necessary for travel of counsel, etc., as the case is at Quebec. If you can raise about one thousand in cash, it will not be excessive. The judgment as it stands is so unfair that every effort ought to be made to bring it before a higher Court.

Yours truly,

(sgd) W. D. Lighthall.
