

OFFICERS.

6. The Officers of the Society shall consist of a President, three Vice-Presidents, Treasurer, Secretary, Librarian, and fifteen Councillors, of whom not more than three may be Associate Members.

7. The Officers shall be elected by a majority of votes taken by sealed letter ballot. This ballot shall be opened and declared at the annual meeting.

If in the ballot, taken for the purpose of filling any specific office, it should appear that no one person had obtained a majority of the whole votes cast, the meeting shall proceed to vote by ballot in the usual way for the filling of such office, the choice of candidates being limited to the two persons who had previously obtained the greatest number of votes in connection with the said office. In case three or more persons shall equally have received the highest number of votes, the choice shall be made from amongst them by ballot.

8. The President, or in his absence, one of the Vice-Presidents, shall preside at all meetings of the Society. In the event of the absence of the President and of all the Vice-Presidents, the meeting may select any member as chairman, the preference being always given to a member of Council.

9. The Secretary shall keep an accurate record of the transactions of the Society, and of the Council. He shall also keep a correct roll of members' names, with their addresses and the dates of their admission. He shall conduct the correspondence of the Society, and shall give notice of all meetings.

10. The Treasurer shall have charge of the funds of the Society, and shall receive all money, pay all accounts and orders approved of by the President, or by the Chairman of the Finance or of the Library Committees. He shall also deposit and invest the funds of the Society in its name, and always with the approval of Council. All accounts exceeding $10 shall be paid in cheques, which shall be signed by the Treasurer and countersigned by two members of the Finance Committee.
