

NEW WATERPROOFS, &C.

"Some Waterproof Garments, introduced by Mr. HENRY HEATH, 107, Oxford Street, London, deserve special mention, as they are particularly suitable for this season of the year, and they quite revolutionize, both in materials and colours, the cloaks hitherto worn in wet weather."—Vide The Queen, Aug. 18, 1883

Hoods and Short Capes to elbow, 16/6, 18/6, &c.

Long Cloak and Hood (Silk-lined Hoods), 30/-, 32/6, &c. (Movable Hood, silk lined).

The "Dolman Shape" fits beautifully to the figure at will.

Send Measurement in inches taken at collar, back of neck to bottom of skirt. Patterns post free.

Free per Parcel Post, "On Sight."

HENRY HEATH,

105 & 107, OXFORD STREET (CITY END).

ONLY ADDRESS "THE MANUFACTORY,"
OVER AGAINST NEWMAN STREET.

Established in the Reign of King George IV.