

You should never go to a public ball until a late hour. In going to private balls attention must be paid to the habits of the inviter. Some persons would be surprised to see their guests before eleven o'clock, while others would be equally annoyed if they did not arrive by seven or eight.

END.

