

- sage-at-arms with Joseph Green, 114; Governor Belcher's practical joke on, 130-132; Green's parody of his hymn written at sea, 133-137; he retorts on Green, 137, 140; his "brown study," 141; witticism at his trial before the justices, 173; humorously relieves his guard, 173, 174; frightens British troops by his joke on Fast Day, 175, 176; makes fun of General Knox, 175; pun on redressing New England's grievances, 176; letter to "Mr. Copley in the solar system," 197; tells Dr. Cooper he treats him like a baby, 197; the "dark day," 198; estimate of, 118; estimate of, by Dr. Nathaniel Emmons, 90, 91; opinions of expressed in "Memorial History of Boston," 117, 118; where his gift of humour came from, 122; William Tudor's verdict on, 163, 164; his library, 91; his letter-book, 188; miscellaneous effects of, 203, 204.
- Byles, Mather, Jr., 7; born, 65, 205; baptized, 237; graduated at Harvard, 205; librarian of Harvard, 237; ordained at New London, 205; portrait of, 206, 207; becomes an Anglican, 208; is lampooned, 209; notice of, in Boston Evening Post, 237; embarks for England, 237; assumes the Rectorship of Christ Church, Boston, 209, 210; leaves for Halifax, Nova Scotia, with Howe's fleet, 210; marries three times, 211; ministry at Halifax and St. John, New Brunswick, 210, 211; receives degrees from Harvard, Yale, and Oxford, 211; letter from his father, 212; writes Rev. Jacob Bailey, 235; his descendants, 211, 212.
- Byles, Misses Mary and Catherine, 7, 8, 68, 70, 72, 89, 127, 128, 205, 216-223.
- Byles, Rebecca, Sr., 67, 72, 127, 128, 211.
- Byles, Rebecca, Jr., 211.
- Byles, Samuel, 215, 229.
- Byles, Sarah, 15.
- Byles, Sarah (Lyde), 211, 212.
- Byles, Thomas, 199.
- Byles chair surmounted by crown, 220.
- Byles's Corner, 230.
- Byles house, 7, 68-72, 230.
- Byles tomb, 229.
- Caner, Rev. Dr., 210, 238, 239.
- "Cards of Boston," 69, 230.
- Castle William, 60, 132.
- Chalmers, Rev. Dr. John, 85, 192.
- Chaney, Rev. George L., 160, 175.
- Charleston, South Carolina, 225.
- Chauncy, Rev. Dr. Charles, 159, 178, 232.
- Chief Published Writings, 240-246.
- Christ Church, Boston, 208, 210.
- Clap, Thomas, of Scituate, 225.