

EXPECT BIG PRICE FOR OLD BUILDING

Book Room Committee May Erect High Structure on Queen Street.

ORIGINALLY PLANNED

To Be Ten Storeys, Methodists Will Probably Carry Out Project.

In view of the ease with which the Methodist Book Room committee secured close upon half a million dollars for the first issue of the building, the committee has given order to the contractors for the work on the million dollar publishing house on the Beverley House site, West Queen street. The fact has been clearly demonstrated to the committee that the Methodist membership throughout the Dominion has not only enjoyed a good share of the period of prosperity, but is now on easy street and confident of the future. The board is satisfied that any subsequent issues of debentures will be taken up promptly, and expects to get a price for the present Richmond street block which will amaze the membership and enable the committee to proceed with the scheme as originally announced for a ten-storey block on a scale to render it officially as announced "the largest religious publishing house in the world."

Night and Day.
The contractors have begun operations and are making active preparations to push on with the erection of the new building day and night owing to the inadequacy of the present printing establishment to cope with its business, which is now bringing in an annual profit in excess of twenty thousand dollars.

EXPRESS SAFE LOOTED BY SOLITARY BANDIT

Sensational Train Robbery Occurred as Train Was Leaving City.

COLUMBIA, S.C., March 28.—A lone bandit looted the express safe of the Board Air Line train No. 2, Tampa to New York here tonight, taking the package said to be of small value, and jumping from the train as it slowed down for a crossing. The robber made his escape. The mail and passenger coaches were not disturbed.

The robbery occurred just as the train was pulling out of Columbia, and the robber forced the express messenger to open the strong box by holding a pistol to his head.

BANK WAS LOOTED BY SEVEN DESPERATE MEN

Bandits Made Prisoner of Cashier, Secured Cash and Escaped.

TACOMA, Wn., March 28.—Seven armed men entered the National Bank at Elma, in the southwest part of Washington today, made a prisoner of the cashier and escaped with a big haul.

The bandits, according to the report received here, set the schoolhouse on fire to distract attention. Several shots were fired, but no one was hurt.

PROF. BONI'S DISCOVERY AT ROME

Rome, March 28.—Prof. Giacomo Boni, who last January discovered the Mausoleum of the ancient City of Rome, has now found, nearby, the place where the vestals preserved the finest ears of corn for the celebration of marriages. This ceremony was considered symbolic of the betrothal of the race.
