TROJAN, LONG SHOT, WINS THE FUTURITY

Rich Race Decided at Saratoga in the Mud—Favorite Second.

SARATOGA, Aug. 29.—Trojan, a maiden, which had raced all season without winning, won the rich Futurity Stakes, worth $22,110, at the Spa track today. She finished first by three lengths, Kasavaska, a frequent winner this year, and the favorite for the race, finished second, four lengths in front of Harry Junior. The track was muddy, and the winner ran the six-furlong course in 1:16 1/2. Thirteen horses ran, but only twelve finished, as The Finn, blinded by mud, was crowded into the fence 100 yards from the finish, just as he was making a gallant spurt home. James F. Johnson of Brooklyn owns Trojan. He backed him at 15 to 1 and more than won the value of the stakes in bet.

HENIKMAN WINS FIVE MILE RACE

Witherspoon First in Half Hour Event—Results at the Motordrome.

Brownie Carslake's name figures only once in the list of prize winners for the race meet at the Motordrome Saturday night, and this was for the third place in the final of the five-mile sweepstakes. The Australian tried hard, but he was not able to qualify for the final of a race for the first time this season when he was nosed out of the three-mile race for all. Then, in the big half-hour feature, Carslake blew a fire which threw him out of the running in the grid.
