

ble. I have to thank THE PRIEST OF THE PARISH for his explanation; his intelligence he will see has partly been availed of; the rest, as also that furnished by CUT-UP, &c. &c. &c. is deferred till the next Domestic Intelligencer. To my Kamouraska correspondent, I shall write a private letter of thanks, and apology for delay. N. from Berthier, is under consideration. I am afraid there is rather too much personal invective and general declamation, without anecdote, or instance, in his portrait of the character he inveighs against.—The matter alluded to by A FRIEND TO FAIR TRADE, would be fitter for an action at law, than for being recorded in the Scribbler. The communication signed DRYBRAINS, requires an explanation.
