

- Nightingale, Florence (Cont.):
 life for nurses, ii, 272-273; on lack of consideration for nurses, i, 516; on mothers as nurses, ii, 261-263; on nursing as a "calling," ii, 272; on observation in nurses, ii, 210-221; on position of nursing superintendent, ii, 250-252; on proper teaching of obstetrics, ii, 239; on proper ventilation, ii, 211-212;
 on quiet in the sick room, ii, 216; on reading aloud in the sick room, ii, 218;
 on requisites of the nurse, ii, 257-259, 275; on sanitation in India, ii, 232-237; on systems of nursing existing in 1862, ii, 241-249; on theory in nurses' training, ii, 274-275; on training of nurses, ii, 263-267, 274-280; on training of probationers, ii, 252-253; on unity among nurses, ii, 277-278; visit of Sidney Herbert to, ii, 113; work of,
 during the Crimean War, 101-171; writings of, ii, 207, 286
- Nightingale Home and Training School, i, 462
- Nightingale School for nurses, brief principles of, ii, 192; class distinction in, ii, 199-206; compensation to pupil nurses, ii, 199; general plan of, ii, 182; influence of, on nursing reform, ii, 183-186, 206; length of course, ii, 198-199; obstetrical training established, ii, 238; opening of, ii, 181; opposition to, ii, 176-181; plans for establishment of, ii, 172-176; theoretical teaching, ii, 200-201; training described by Dr. Gill Wylie, ii, 202-203
- Nolan, William, criticisms of hospital management, i, 504
- Nurse Society of Philadelphia, instruction of pupils, ii, 343; organisation of, ii, 341-342; work of, ii, 342
- Nursing, absence of, during early epidemics, i, 453;
 among savage tribes, i, 21-25; as a "calling," Florence Nightingale on, ii, 272; as a penance for sins, i, 134; by primitive man, i, 12-25; by private individuals, i, 135, 137, 141, 467; by religious orders (see Nursing orders); by royalty, i, 157-159, 348-349; by saints, i, 210-232; combined with duties of soldier, i, 183-185; decline of standards of, i, 499-506; development of, in America, ii, 326-369; during the Christian period, i, 100; during the Crusades, i, 178; during the pre-Christian period, i, 1-92; early English, i, 441-476; earliest examples of, by early Christians, i, 120; in America, development of, ii, 326-369; in ancient Greece, i, 81-82; in ancient Rome, i, 88; in Ceylon, i, 44-45;
 in India, i, 32-33; in workhouse infirmaries, ii, 294; instruction in, in connection with monasteries, i, 152; neglect of, i, 460
- Nursing orders:
 Augustinian Sisters, i, 294-334, 369-383, 448, 457
 Béguines, Order of, i, 259-273
 Brignoline or Daughters of our Lady of Mt. Calvary, i, 339
 Brothers of Mercy, i, 340-342