

THE MORNIN'-GLORY GIRL

face as Mrs. Wopp's singing, subdued by distance, floated into the room,

"Let us keep the wheat a' roses
Carstin' out the thorns a' charff,
Let us find our sweetest comfort
In the blessin's of to-day,
With a patient hand removin'
Orl the briers from the way.

Then scartter seeds of kindness,
Then scartter seeds of kindness,
Then scartter seeds of kindness
Fer our reapin' bye 'n' bye."
