This being the first opportunity the deponent has had, of expressing his gratitude to the American chizens who treated the prisoners with so much friendship and humanity at Detroit, cannot refrain from so doing. And as long as he lives, the names of Measrs. Mack, Miller, Smart, Woodward, Williams, M'Donald, Hunt, Mays &c. shall never be forgotten.

United States' Ship Madison. Sackett's Harber, 4th June, 1813.

Sin-I have the honor to present you, by the hands of Liutenant Dudley, the British standard, taken at York, on the 27th of April last, accompanied by the mace, over which was hung a human scalp.

These articles were taken from the parliament house by one of my officers, and presented to me. The scalp I caused to be presented to General Dearborn, who I believe, still has it in his possession. I also send, by the same gentleman, one of the British flags taken at Fort George on the 27th of May.

I have the honor to be, vers ways Very respectfully, Sir, San Market

Your most obt. humble servt. ISAAC CHAUNCEY.
