

1883.

The St. Lawrence Steamer

ST. LAWRENCE and SAGUENAY LINE, composed of

"SAGUENAY"

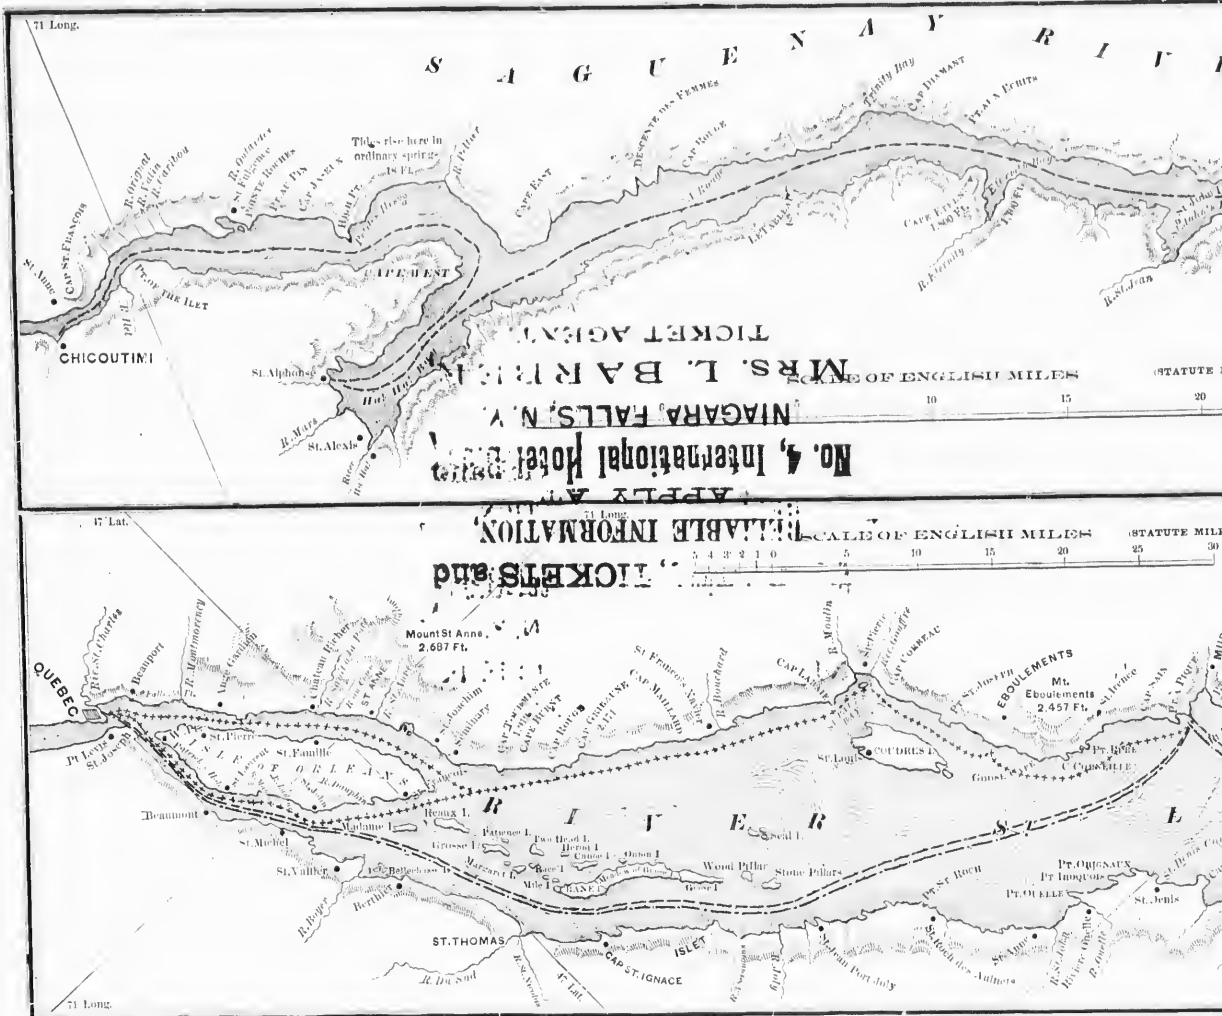

"ST. LAWRENCE"

The Only Line to the Sea-side Resorts on the Lower St. La

SAGUENAY

Hon. THOMAS MCGREEVY, President.

JULIEN CHABOT, Manager.

No other Route in America presents to Tourists and Pleas

A Sail in any of the Steamers of this Company, which are fitted with a view to SATISFY THE MOST FASTIDIOUS TRAVELER, offers I from Quebec to the mouth of the Saguenay, is AS CHARMING AS THE RIVER RHINE, while both Shores abound in Legends of the early history

THE SAGUENAY,

THE SCENERY OF WHICH

Tourists will leave their visit to Canada incomplete without h

For further information apply to LEVE & ALDEN'S Tourist Offices,
 New York, 207 Broadway and 5 Union Square. Boston, 296 Washington St. Philadelphia, corner Broad & Chestnut St.
 Cincinnati, 131 Vine St. New Orleans, 19 Camp St. Halifax, N. S., 195 Hollis St.