

TITLE II.

OF THE PROCTORS.

§ 1. The Deans of Faculties shall exercise the functions and discharge the duties of Proctors.

§ 2. The candidates for matriculation and for degrees in each Faculty shall be presented by the Dean of that Faculty; whilst the other Deans act as Proctors on the occasion.

§ 3. On all other occasions the Deans shall act as Proctors, according to the following rotation:

In Michaelmas Term the Deans of Law and Medicine.

In Hilary Term the Deans of Law and Arts.

In Easter Term the Deans of Medicine and Arts.

§ 4. The seniority of the Proctors shall be regulated by the precedence of their Faculties.

§ 5. The office of Proctors in Convocation is to preserve order and collect the votes on a division, and to perform such other duties as are assigned to them by the Regulations of Convocation.

§ 6. The Senior Proctor shall see that the Minutes of Convocation are accurately kept.

§ 7. *Each Proctor shall see, when necessary, that the results of the proceedings of Convocation are communicated to the parties interested in them, according to the academical rank of the parties.**

§ 8. The Proctors shall take the first and second of the engagements contained in Title I. § 2, (mutatis mutandis) before the Chancellor or his representative, on the next meeting of Convocation after their election.

TITLE III.

OF THE SCRUTATORS.

§ 1. The Scrutators shall be chosen from members of Convocation.

§ 2. It shall be their business to assist the Proctors in the discharge of their duties, particularly by taking the votes in Convocation, and by acting for them in their absence.

§ 3. Each Proctor shall nominate the Scrutator who shall act for him.

§ 4. The Scrutators shall take the same engagements as the Proctors (mutatis mutandis), before the Chancellor or his representative.

TITLE IV.

OF THE SECRETARY OF CONVOCATION.

§ 1. The Secretary of Convocation shall, previously to entering on the duties of his office, take the second engagement of Title I. § 2, (mutatis mutandis), before the Senior Proctor.

§ 2. His deputy may be any member of Convocation, if approved by the Chancellor or his representative and the Proctors.
