

PRIZE-GIVING AT ST. ANDREW'S

Dr. Bruce Macdonald Pays
Tribute to Fallen
Students.

SIR R. FALCONER

A. G. Curry Wins Three Medals—University President Speaks.

Prize day at St. Andrew's College, which took place yesterday afternoon, differed little from the usual ceremony in spite of the fact that during the last term the school has had to move from its home in Rosedale to temporary quarters in Knox College. The beautiful chapel of the building on St. George street was packed yesterday with friends of the school, who were present to see the boys receive the prizes won last year.

Dr. D. Bruce Macdonald, headmaster of the college, read out the long list of college men who had responded to the call to arms, many of whom had received decorations of various kinds and many of whom had given their lives on the field of battle.

The prizes for the junior school were presented by J. K. Macdonald, president of the board of governors. Mr. Macdonald made a few remarks about the transfer of the school to its present quarters and hoped that the influence of the building would have a tendency to cause some of the St. Andrew's boys to enter the ministry. He said the war had depleted the ranks of noble men and more were needed, and he hoped they might arise from St. Andrew's College. "I indulge the hope and trust I live to see that hope verified," said the president.

Professor Ballantyne, acting principal of Knox College, in presenting the prizes to the boys of forms I, II and III, said that he thought the boys of St. Andrew's College and the men of Knox College were being of mutual benefit to each other, and he was glad such was the case. He referred to the confidence the boys all placed in Dr. Macdonald and the love they bore Mrs. Macdonald.

Sir Robert Falconer presented the prizes to the upper sixth and remarked on the perfect behavior of the college boys, which fact he had seen daily on the university campus. "I often wonder if the effect of the wonderful Norman tower has not a restraining influence on the boys," he said smilingly.

Professor Bowles of Victoria College presented the prizes to the fourth form boys, and Major Archibald of St. Andrew's Hospital to the fifth. Lieutenant John Pringle, pioneer missionary to the Yukon and now back from four years' service in France, presented the prizes to the sixth form boys. Col. Pringle told stories of the early days of the school when he was then a friend. He said St. Andrew's boys were never prize. The prize he gave the motherland for the part she has played in the war was couched in no mean terms. "The greatest thing England did was when, in the person of that quiet statesman, Sir Edward Grey, she stepped out and said: 'I stand for right.' Canada did her best when she stepped up beside England and said: 'Me, too!'"

Sir John Hendrie presented the following medals to the boys who won them: Governor-general's, A. G. Curry; chairman's medal, J. E. Macdonald; Cooper science medal, S. R. Black; headmaster's medal, A. G. Curry; lieutenant-governor's silver medal, R. C. McLaughlin; lieutenant-governor's bronze, A. G. Curry. The following medals and cups were won: Head prefect's prize, J. D. F. Ross; head prefect's prize, B. W. Emerson; Wyld prize in Latin, J. E. McDougall; James George prize in English, S. A. Beath; Thorley medal for proficiency in shooting, W. D. Lightbourn; Goodwin medal, R. T. Black, II.; Christie cup, R. Robertson; 45th Highlanders' Chapter, I. O. D. E., R. H. Campbell.

CITY BARRISTERS ASK FOR CENTRAL JUDGE

An appeal for legislation to provide a central criminal judge for the City of Toronto to try all criminal cases when the charges are laid in the city, was presented to Premier Hearst yesterday by R. W. Harding, A. J. Russell, J. H. Spence, N. B. Oakes and other members of the Ontario Bar Association. They pointed out that this had been tried in the large cities of the United States with success. If it were carried out in Toronto it would remove from Judges Winchester, Coatsworth, Denton or any other who tries cases in the assizes or sessions the power to try Toronto cases.

It was further suggested that legislation be provided for a high court practice judge at Osgoode Hall, who would devote his whole attention to practice matters, and thus relieve the judges.

SEWAGE NUISANCE APPEAL.

The board of control has instructed a city solicitor to enter a further appeal in the case of W. Fieldhouse v. the City of Toronto. Fieldhouse brought a suit against the city, claiming that the Morley avenue sewage disposal plant constituted a nuisance and ruined his business. Judgment was then given against the city by Sir William Mulock. The city then took the case to the appellate division and appealed, but the judgment was upheld. Now the city intends to make another appeal.

BISHOP LOST APPEAL IN MARY BASIL SUIT

Episcopal Corporation of Kingston Win—No Costs
Granted.

This was an appeal by the defendants, Spratt, the Roman Catholic Episcopal Corporation of the Diocese of Kingston, Mary Frances Regis, the sisters of charity of the House of Providence and Daniel Phelan, from the judgment of Britton, J., dated Dec. 6, 1917.

The action was by Mary Basil, a sister of charity, against Archibishop Spratt and the other defendants to recover $20,000 damages for alleged attempted removal of plaintiff to a lunatic asylum in Montreal. At the trial judgment was entered for plaintiff against the defendants, M. J. Spratt, the Roman Catholic Episcopal Corporation of the Diocese of Kingston, Mary Frances Regis and the sisters of charity of the House of Providence for $20,000 damages with costs and dismissing the action as against defendants. P. C. Naylor, Mary Vincent, Mary Magdalene and Mary Alice, without costs.

The case made by the respondent in her pleadings is that she was a member of the sisters of charity of the House of Providence, and that a conspiracy was entered into between the appellants or some of them to deprive her of her status as a member of the society and to compel her to leave it, and that in pursuance of and carrying out of the conspiracy she was assaulted with the view of taking her by force to a lunatic asylum in Montreal, and was by the conduct of these appellants compelled to leave the home of the society in which she lived and as a member of the society was entitled to live, and that the result has been that the respondent has been deprived of her rights as a member of the society including her right to be supported and maintained during the remainder of her life.

The chief justice in a written judgment allowed the appeals of Episcopal Corporation of the Diocese of Kingston and the sisters of charity of the House of Providence without costs and dismissed the action as against them without costs. Appeals of the other defendants, Spratt, Regis and Phelan, dismissed with costs. MacLaren, J.A.; Magee, J.A.; Hodgins, J.A., concurred. Ferguson, J.A., in a written judgment being of the opinion that the appeals of the two corporations should also be dismissed.

Union Bank vs. Makepeace—Judgment: Both appeals allowed. Hodgins, J.A., dissenting. Judgment to be entered on further directions declaring defendant not indebted. Defendants to have costs of both appeals and of the proceedings subsequent to the judgment of the divisional court directing reference.

Peterson Lake vs. Dominion Reduction Company—Appeal dismissed with costs.

Both vs. South Easthope—The judgment is varied; the judgment for damages being reduced by $100. No costs of appeal to either party.

Mann vs. Gray—Appeal allowed, the judgment to be for $150 with county court costs without set-off. On the counter-claim specific performance should be ordered without costs. No costs of appeal to either party.

McGlynn vs. Hastie—Appeal allowed with costs and action dismissed with costs. Hodgins, J.A., and Magee, J.A., dissenting.

Meade vs. McLagan—Appeal dismissed with costs.

The King vs. Hackam—Motion to quash was made before Mr. Justice Riddell. Judgment: Conviction quashed with costs. No order for protection of magistrate.

Sam Hackam was convicted by W. J. White, police magistrate of Bracebridge, for failing to register as required by order-in-council P.C. No. 2194 of Sept. 20, 1916, and fined $250, or in default of payment of fine to two months in jail. He went to jail but paid the fine the next day. The informant, Roy H. Stewart, had no evidence but belief that he was an enemy alien. Hackam claims he is not a Turk, but a Syrian, belonging to the Lebanon district. He was born and lived under Turkish rule; he is not naturalized. It was contended by counsel that the order-in-council does not apply to Hackam, as he was not at the time of the passing of the act a resident of Canada, and that the conviction of an alien of enemy nationality residing or being in Canada, and that the prosecution ought to have been brought within six months after the alleged offence in the absence of any provisions to the contrary in the order-in-council of Sept. 20, 1916.

Second Appellate Division.

HARBORD COLLEGIATE ANNUAL PRIZE-GIVING.

Many of the former students and most of the present ones of Harbord Collegiate Institute were present at the annual commencement exercises held yesterday afternoon in the school. Principal E. W. Hagarty, M.A., in his address, emphasized the fact that the school kept in view things—discipline, character formation and scholarship. The lasting effects of the discipline and character formation were to be seen in the fact that nearly 500 of the ex-pupils had volunteered for the war, and of these 49 had died. During the four years of the war the collegiate had raised over $7000 and $8000 for patriotic purposes, and this had been done without interfering with routine studies.

Miss Constance Boulton of the board of education presented the diplomas and spoke of the fine work done by the school. The school board and citizens ought to be proud of it, she said.

Scholarships.
The three J. J. Carter scholarships for Toronto were all won by Harbord pupils. The winners were: Miss Gladys V. Lewis, $100; H. W. Johnston, $60; and Miss M. B. Kearney, $40. These added to the university scholarships won by these pupils make their total earnings: Miss Lewis, $65; Mr. Johnston, $125; Miss Kearney, $200, and Miss K. D. Cordingley, $180, making a total for the school of $1150.

Other prize-winners are Miss Mary Mulock, who wins the second Edward Blake scholarship in moderns, Miss M. B. Kearney the second Edward Blake scholarship in mathematics and science, H. W. Johnston the fourth Edward Blake scholarship in classics, Miss K. D. Cordingley gets the first Edward Blake scholarship in modern languages.

Miss G. V. Lewis, being first in general proficiency, was valedictorian.

The government ownership of the Canadian Northern is now universally recognized as a move in the right direction. RAILWAY BROTHERHOOD APPEAL PAY SCHEDULE

The Dominion Labor Appeal Board, now sitting at the city hall to inquire into certain C.N.R. matters, yesterday heard the appeal of the Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employees against the recent finding of the board of conciliation. Recently there was before the C.N.R. a schedule for rates of pay, and they granted the Brotherhood all excepting four clauses. These were recognition of the brotherhood, date of increases becoming effective, inclusion of certain classes of employees on the no-strike clause. The brotherhood was represented by R. Dykes, general chairman of the grievance committee, C.N.R.; A. L. Lydard, chairman of the dining cars branch, C.N.R., and E. Robson, organizer. The company was represented by A. J. Hills, assistant to the president; H. B. Wollen, assistant superintendent of dining cars; A. C. Egan and F. Stephens.

The Dominion Appeal Board is composed of Hon. Justice F. S. Maclellan of Montreal, chairman; G. H. Duggan, Dominion Shipbuilding Co., and S. R. Parsons, British American Oil Co., appointed by the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, and J. W. Bruce of Toronto and Gustav Franco of Montreal, appointed by the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada.

Mr. Hills, representing the C.N.R., stated that the company was always prepared to receive a committee of men composed of the firm's employees, but it had happened that in a good many cases the deputations included others than the firm's employees. The case was laid before the appeal board on behalf of the brotherhood by A. T. Hill.

STREET CAR SHORTAGE IS BEING OVERCOME

P.A.Y.E. Route in Few Weeks
—Changes in the Time-Table.

Assistant General Manager Fred Hubbard of the Toronto Railway Company appeared before the Ontario Railway Board yesterday and outlined the efforts put forth during the past six weeks to improve the street car service of the city. According to the report, 1596 men were employed on the company on Dec. 4, as compared with 1444 employees on Nov. 1. The difficulty of operating because of the shortage of help is being rapidly overcome. With 147 men in training it is expected that more than sufficient men will be available to operate even the Dec. 4, as compared with a year ago," said Mr. Hubbard, "and we are restoring the time tables to get a better headway. The number of cars undergoing repairs is 95, and some of these are being changed into P.A.Y.E. cars." It is expected that there will be enough P.A.Y.E. cars ready in a few weeks to start a route for them. It was decided that as soon as recruiting for employees is completed and as many cars manned as possible the company will again report. The city was not represented before the board. "I think the work of the company has been very commendable," said Chairman D. A. McIntyre of the railway board. "I hope that this board will some credit for having spurred the company on to do something."

LESS COAL, LESS ASHES.

Due probably to the coal shortage, or the fact that the citizens have been using what coal they have sparingly, a substantial decrease in the number of wagon loads of ashes taken by the figures given out by Commissioner Wilson of the street cleaning department during November. In this month some 11,139 carts and 4951 wagons filled with ashes were carted away, as against the total of 14,244 carts and 5419 wagons for the corresponding month of last year.

Yesterday the department put on an extra large number of men and teams to look after the first heavy snowfall of the year.
