

"FIT-REFORM" TAILORING

"Fit-Reform" Suits are handmade, from the time the cutter traces his pattern on the cloth, until the finishers give the garments their last touches.

Shoulders and collars are moulded by hand. That's why a "Fit-Reform" coat holds its shape so long-hugs the neck so snugly.

"Fit-Reform" Clothes are tailor-made, just as surely as if they had been built to your individual measure.

Special Meeting of Council Welcomes New Member and Does a Little Business.

The council held a short session yeserday. Ald. Hay, having previously aken the oath of office, was introduced and the mayor made a few happy relause. Mr. Hay took Dr. Harrison's seat, the doctor moving up into ex-Ald. Bell's place. Ald. Woods resigned from the legislation committee, to which Ald. Hay was appointed, and he will also serve on the works committee, while the former goes on the fire and light

On the introduction of the bylaw providing for holding the election on the 30th inst., Dr. Noble wanted to have men appointed who lived in the ward would know the people. Ald. Foster objected to the appointment of a resident of Ward One to act in Ward Two, and moved the substitution of Mr. Alkins' name for Mr. Summerhayes in the bylaw. Ald. Sheppard deprecated any interference with the city cierk. There should be some one who could be held responsible. Ald. Foster withdrew his motion.

Marking and Addressing Freight. The attention of all concerned is again directed to the necessity of fully marking all freight.

1. Each package or piece must be plainly marked with the name and ad-per or his representative. Old marks must be removed or effaced.

3. Tags should not be used when the address being stenciled on packages. If this be not possible, some distinguishing mark or brand must be placed upon the goods, and must be shown in the bill of lading. Agents must transfer such mark or brand to the waybill, which must describe the goods fully. For example, in the case of a shipment of canned goods, the bill of lading (and also the waybill) must show so many cases of tomatoes, so many cases of pears, so many cases of corn, etc., as well as the brand and the mark indicating the consignee and destination.

There were many elements that lent large attraction to the big initiation ceremony of the I.O.F. at Massey Hall as few evenings since. That one thousand new members should join the offer at one time was an historic event. Charges for the cabs are to be according to bylaw rates and the hotel company is to be liable to the defendant for charges incurred by guests. The defendant's drivers in order to carry out this agreement wait in front of the hotel until they are required by guests. I do not think that such waiting for guests is what is meant by the bylaw. The cabs are hired by the hotel company, it is true, only at a nominal charge, but they are in the service of the hotel company and under the agreement Maher is bound to supply them.
