Report of the Deacons' Court,

FOR THE YEAR ENDING 31st DECEMBER, 1896

The report of the Deacons' Court for the year 1896, now presented to the Congregation, discloses much cause for thankfulness, in that while there has been general complaint of depression in business, yet the Lord has so blessed us that we have been able this year to contribute more for the work of our Church, and the advancement of His cause in the world, than in the previous year.

WEEKLY OFFERINGS.

The receipts Ordinary and Special for the year amount to the sum of $10,733.77, of which $8,449 was by envelope, $1,402.02 in open collection, and $882.75 by special contributions, making a weekly average of $206.41.
