DISCUSSING THE ADDRESS

Liberals Attacking the House of Lords.

Suggestion That Britain Combine Business With Friendship.

In Regard to the Clayton-Bulwer Treaty—An Italian Concession to France That Creates Comment.

London, Feb. 14.—In the House of Commons, Mr. Henry Labouchere, Liberal member for Northampton, made an attack on the House of Lords, with a view of limiting its veto power, from which, he said, Liberal members invariably suffered. He moved an amendment to the address to the throne, providing that bills adopted by the commons in one session and not adopted by the peers, should, if re-passed by the commons at a subsequent session, become the law of the land.

After a discussion of Mr. Labouchere's amendment, Mr. John Lawson, Walton, Liberal member for South Leeds, proposed an amendment to the address, declaring that the power now possessed by the House of Lords of overruling the decision of the House of Commons demanded the urgent attention of parliament.

Sir Henry Campbell Bannerman, the newly-elected leader of the Liberals in the commons, supported the Walton amendment. In the course of a vigorous speech, he denied that the Liberals were actuated by partisan spirit in raising the question; but the House of Lords, he declared, has always formed a continuous and stereotyped Conservative majority. On patriotic grounds, he said, the situation was full of danger, and no dispassionate man can deny the anomaly and absurdity of a House of Lords in the face of a representative system of government. The Liberals desire to guard the interests of the representative chamber, while giving to the House of Commons a reasonable power of criticism and advice.

Mr. Arthur J. Balfour, government leader, said there was no middle course between the policy expressed in Mr. Labouchere's amendment, and the policy of leaving the House of Peers in its present condition. He declared it to be his firm conviction that the Liberals, in proposing constitutional reform, were really acting in the interest of party.

The house rejected both amendments—Mr. Walton's by 257 against 107, and Mr. Labouchere's by 223 against 105.

FRIENDSHIP AND BUSINESS.

The London Times publishes a long explanatory history article on the Nicaragua Canal and the Clayton-Bulwer treaty, advocating compensation for the abrogation of the treaty, and declaring that "the Americans will think no less of us if we combine friendship with business."

While our interests in the canal scheme are large, America's are vital, and therefore, as an act of friendship, we ought to abrogate the treaty on reasonable conditions, which will not be in any way objectionable to the United States.

Commenting on the report of the special commission appointed by President McKinley to investigate the conduct of the war department in the war with Spain, the Times says: "We are not surprised that the American public greets it with derision. President McKinley's loyalty to Secretary Alger is natural, and even commendable; but if the United States is to have able administrators, it is absolutely essential that those at its head shall be above suspicion. If the talent of politics is fastened on the new colonial administration, our hopes of its future must be considerably dashed."

CONCESSION TO FRANCE.

Italy and France, says the Rome correspondent of the Daily Mail, have agreed to share possession of Cape Dumeira, on the Rahaia coast, at the southern extremity of the Red Sea. It is expected that France will fortify her position on the Cape. In the opinion of the correspondent the British fortifications at Perim, in the Straits of Bab-el-Mandeb, at the entrance to the Red Sea, opposite the Rahaia coast, will lose much of their strategic value by this Italian concession to the French Government.

DREYFUS.

The judicial officer who has just returned on a visit to Dreyfus on the Isle du Diabolé, states that the prisoner is in good health, but declines to reply to the written interrogations of the court of cassation, on the ground that his answers are inaccurately transmitted to Paris.

TUBERCULOSIS.

A committee representing the International congress for the prevention of tuberculosis, which will sit in Berlin from May 24 to May 27 next, under the patronage of Empress Augusta Victoria and the honorary presidency of the imperial chancellor, Prince von Hohenlohe, called at the United States and bade to enlist American interest and co-operation in the undertaking. Frederick Williams will entertain the members of the congress.

CABLE NOTES.

The firm of Eskridge, Pooley & Gladstone, Liverpool, was posted on the cotton market as heavily short, causing the market to advance on buying to cover against them. The liabilities of the firm are considered heavy.

CAPTURED THE CAPITAL

Iloilo in the Hands of Uncle Sam's Forces.

No Casualties Among the Captors—The Place Fled Before It Was Evacuated.

Manila, Feb. 14—9:30 a.m.—The Americans captured Iloilo on Saturday. The United States forces, under Brig-Gen. Miller, captured Iloilo, capital of the Island of Panay, and seat of the so-called government of the Visayan federation, on Saturday last, after a bombardment.

The rebels set the town on fire before evacuating it, but the American troops extinguished the flames. There were no casualties on the American side.

BOMBARDED BY GUNBOATS.

Manila, Feb. 14—9:45 a.m.—The United States gunboat Petrel arrived last evening with dispatches from Gen. Miller to Gen. Otis, announcing that Iloilo had been taken by the combined military and naval forces on Saturday morning. Gen. Miller, on receipt of his instructions from Gen. Otis, sent native commissioners ashore from the U. S. transport St. Paul, with a communication for the rebel governor of Iloilo, calling upon him to surrender within a time stated and warning him not to make a demonstration, in the event of his refusal to do so.

The rebels immediately removed their guns and prepared to defend their position. Thereupon, the Petrel fired two warning guns, the rebels immediately opening fire upon her. The Petrel and the Baltimore then bombarded the town, which the rebels, having set on fire, immediately evacuated. American troops were promptly landed, and extinguished the fires in all cases of foreign property, but not before considerable damage had been done. It is believed the enemy's loss during the bombardment was heavy, but no American casualties were reported.

MESSAGE FROM OTIS.

Washington, Feb. 14.—Adjutant-General Corbin shortly after midnight made public the following message from Gen. Otis, reporting the capture of Iloilo by Gen. Miller on the 13th inst.: "Manila, Feb. 13—Gen. Miller reports from Iloilo that town taken 11th inst. and held by the troops. Insurgents given until evening of 11th to surrender, but their hostile action brought an engagement during the morning. Insurgents fired native portion of town. But they lost to property of foreign inhabitants. No casualties among the United States troops reported.—(Signed) Otis."
