The old St. Margaret's Anglican Church, on the east side of Spadina-avenue, south of Queen-street, has been bought by the Knights of Columbus, for a Grand Lodge headquarters at a cost of $22,000. The trustees of the church have accepted the offer, and it is now before a special committee of the synod, which must give permission to sell. There is no doubt, however, but it will be granted, as $500 has already been deposited by the lodge. The church was abandoned about a year ago as a place of worship, owing to the business enterprises moving, into that district.

Donovan, acting on orders, removed the barrier and was arrested.

The company claimed that the mayor and officials were criminally liable under the Railway Act, for placing an obstruction on the track, and that their constable was only performing his duty. The city's contention is that it controls the streets, and is spite of the franchise granted to the street railway, can stop traffic pending the coinpletion of the paving contract. The company asked for reimbursement if the cars were stopped, and W. N. Andrews, J.P., ordered an adjournment till to-morrow.
