Special to The Toronto World.
KINGSTON, Ont., Aug. 18.—With a smile on his face, Lieut. Edwin Baker, the Queen's student who lost the sight of both his eyes fighting at the front, told a large gathering in the village of Odesa, where he was welcomed today, that he did not consider the loss of his eyes an affliction. At St. Dunstan's School for the Blind in London, Eng., Lieut. Baker finished his course in electrical engineering which he expects to follow despite his handicap. STAR THEATRE.

Just six years ago a little girl walked into the office of Billy Watson, of "Beet" fame, and asked to be given a chance in the show. There was no opening except in the chorus, so she accepted that. Her ambition was to become a favorite of the footlights, and it is fast becoming a reality. Frankie Niblo, the charming soubrette of the Cherry Blossoms, is the girl in question and after one season in the chorus with the Watson show she was made soubrette, and featured with the same company. Later she went to England and played every theatre on the Moss & Stoll Tour, and having finished that, returned to America this past spring. Maurice Jacobs, manager of the "Cherry Blossoms," saw her perform and immediately offered her his agents approach her with an offer for the present season. This was accepted, and so Frankie Niblo has returned to her "first love," burlesque, and is one of the brightest features with this well-known company.
