F. R. Langstaff, of Parkdale, Elected Vice-Commodore of Canadian Association.

Ottawa, May 9 .- With delegates pre ent from Toronto, Montreal, Ottawa and many other points, the annual meeting of the Quadian Canoe Association took place here Saturday evening.

It was unanimously decided that the northern division should hold the annual championship regatta, which has been awarded to Carleton Place, on Aug. 8, and that the Canadian Canoe Association should continue to govern its own affairs, irrespective of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada, which sought to take the paddlers under its care. The motion to affiliate with the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada was voted down by a large metally.

Athletic Union of Canada was voted down by a large majority.

C. E. Radford of Montreal, commodore, occupied the chair and the attendance was one of the largest in the history of the Canadian Canoe Association. Mr. Langstaff and several other Toronto delegates put up a lively argument in favor of joining forces with the A.A.U., but they received little support, and when the motion finally came, it was snowed under, two Toronto Clubs and the Rideaus of Ottawa, being the only ones favorable.

The divisions will arrange their qualionly ones fevorable.

The divisions will arrange their qualifying meets, which will likely take place on Aug. 2. The Hudson-on-the-Lake Club was admitted to membership, but after a lengthy debate it was decided to defer acceptance of the St. Rose Club. This was due to the fact that Riley Hern, formerly of the Wanderer Hockey Club, is president of the St. Rose Club. There is a clause in the constitution which states that no club having a professional as an officer or a member, is eligible for membership. OVERLAND REPAIRS — A. W. Four clubs were agreed upon with a double schedule, Nationals, Shamrocks, Ottawa and Cornwall. The Tecumsehs' application was rejected because of heavy traveling expenses to Toronto.

A neutral system of referees was agreed upon, each club to send in a list of names to the president. June 5 was selected as the opening date for the season.
