Profits of the Standard. Ida M. Tarbell, in October McClure's.
The profits of the present Standard Oli Company are enormous. For five years the dividends have been averaging about forty-five million dollars a year, or nearly 50 per cent, on its capitalization, a sum which, capitalized at 5 per cent., would give $900,000,000. Of course cent., would give $900,000,000. Of course this is not all that the combination makes in a year. It allows an annual average of 5.77 per cent, for deficit, and it carries always an ample reserve fund. When we remember that probably one-third of this immense annual revenue goes into the hands of Mr. John D. Rockdfeller, that probably John D. Rockdfeller, that probably 90 per cent, of it goes to the few men who make up the "Standard Oil family," and that it must every year be invested, the Standard Oil Company become a much more serious public matter than it was in 1872, when it stamped itself as willing to enter into a conspiracy to raid the oil business—as a much more serious concern than in the years when it openly made warfare of business and drove from the oil industry by any means it could invent industry by any means it could invent all who had the hardihood to enter it. For consider what must be done with the greater part of this $45,000,000. It must be invested. The oil business does not demand it. There is plenty of rethe greater part of this $45,000,000. It must be invested. The oil business does not demand it. There is plenty of reserve for all of its ventures. Itmust go into other industries. . . The result is that the Standard Oil Company is probably in the strongest financial position of any aggregation in the world. And every year its position grows stronger, for every year there is pouring in another $45,000,000 to be used in wiping up the property mose essential to preserving and broadening its power.

The result is waging England's war and England is already grabbing the booty. Tibet is her first prize.

Violated Fisheries Act.

Kingston. Sept. 22.—At Cataraqui a violation of the fishing regulations was heard before John Simpson, J.P. J. L. Sears, overseer. Under its charter the company is freed from government control of rates until its net income reaches the amount stated. As to whether this stage has been reached in the company's finances there is a difference of opinion between the minister of iustice and the officers of the company, and it was thought that a judicial determination of the questions involved would materially assist in arriving at an understanding of the mutual rights of the government and the company and the obligations or liabilities of the company in this behalf.

Port Hope, Sept. 22.-R. L. Borden, but K.C., M.P., the popular leader of the Conservative party in the house of commons, with Mrs. Borden, will be in Port Hope next Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Borden will hold a reception in the town hall from 3 to 5 o'clock in the afternoon. In the evening at 8 o'clock, a meeting will be held in the opera house, at which Mr. Borden will deliver an address. It was originally arranged that the evening meeting should be held at Bowmanville, but on account of a hall being unobtaineble in Bowmanville meeting has been unavoidably postponed.

The Trocadero Burlesquers, which start a week's engagement at the Star Theatre, commencing Monday matinee, is one of the best laughing shows of the season. The first part, called "A Misfit Family," is without a doubt the best laughing pleee that will be seen in Torouto this season. The olio consists of five acts of as good a vaudeville as you could wish for, including the Grahams, America's leading song illustrators. The show closes with a piece called "The Virginian." Matinees will be given daily as usual.

At the Black Watch Band farewell content of Monday evening next at Massey thall, Mayor Urquhart will make a brief address, expressing the kindly feeling of ing has been unavoidably postponed, and a meeting will be held in Port Hope on Wednesday instead.

Ida M. Tarbell, in October McClure's. Few men in either the political of in-dustrial life of this country can point friend an achievement carried out in more exact accord with its first concention than John D. Rockefeller, for both in purpose and methods the Standard Oil Company is and always has been a form of the South Improvement Company, by which Mr. Rockefeller first attracted general attention in the oil industry. The 'original scheme has suffered many modifications. Its most offensive feature, the drawback on other people's shipments, has been cut off. Nevertheless, to-day, as at the start, the purpose of the Standard Oil Company is the purpose of the South Improvement Company is the purpose of the South Improvement Company is the purpose of the South Improvement Company is the purpose of the Standard Oil company is the purpose of the Standard Oil of the chief means for sustaining this purpose is still that of the original scheme—a control of oil transportation giving special privileges in rates.

Buy Floor Rugs Saturday And Save $9.50 to $13.50

To day's news of Floor Rugs refers especially to a series of designs suit able for libraries and dining rooms. These were copied from patterns in yogue last season, but are now being discontinued. In style and general color vogue last season, but are now being discontinued. In style and general color treatment the rugs are everything that the average person would ask for, and yet in selling them we must say that they lack that one feature of being designed for 1904. If one's choice is to be between this season's patterns and those of a season back, price being equal, one chooses the later productions, but where a saving of $9.50 to $13.50 is in sight one scarcely minds how far back the pattern dates, so long as the colorings are choice—and, after all, last year's designs and this year's are not so very different. Here are the sizes to clear to morrow.

Size 9.0 x 10.6, $18, worth $27.50 Size 9.0 x 12.0, $22, worth $31.50. Size 11.3 x 13.6, $30, worth $43.50. Size 13.6 x 15.0, $42, worth $57.50. These rugs will be sold on Third Floor. Take the elevator. Men's "Court" Dress Shirts 75c Each

"The Bonnie Brier Bush," that excellent stage version of Ian MacLaren's widely read Scotch tales, with J. H. Stoddant and Reuben Fax in the principal roles, comes to the Grand Opera House next week. Mr. Stoddart's interpretation of the exacting role of the old shepherd with his mistaken notions of 'right and wrong, has been pronounced by critics of both press and profession as one of the most finished characterizations now to be seen on the stage of this country. It is questionable if ever such a convincing representation of the hard, religious old Scot has even been put before us. Reuben Fax is a close second in his consistent portrayal of the good-hearted postman, Archibald McKittrick, in which character he contributes much of the

At the Black Watch Band farewell concert on Monday evening next at Massey Hall, Mayor Urquhart will make a brief address, expressing the kindly feeling of the citizens of Toronto towards Major Rose and the Black Watch, and wish them farewell. The Silven Slipper," John C. Fisher's great musical production by the authors of 'Florodora,' returns to the Princess Theatre next week. This musical comedy had a run of six months at the Broadway Theatre. New York, eight weeks in Philadefpais and four weeks in Boston. The costumes and scenic effects are said to be unsurpassed in the history of musical plays. In sending "The Silver Slipper" on tour, Mr. Fisher did not hesitate at expenses, the company numbering 125 people.
