contest between virtue and villainy, i which the former is finally proclaime When an audience demands repetitions of a song, you are reasonably sure that the musical number had "caught on." In the "Isle of Spice," B. C. Whitney's newest piquant musical mixture, which returns to the Princess Theatre next week, there are, it is said, at least nine songs that are invariably demanded from five to a dozen times each. Among them are: "Pegsy Brady," "Uncle Sam's Marines," "You and I," "Mercenary Mary Ann," "The houses. The engagement opens with a matinee on Monday, and during the week a matinee will be given every day.

Charley Grapewin has been surround ed by an excellent supporting company in "The Awakening of Mr. Pipp,"which returns to the Grand Opera House next week. Among its prominent mem bers are Anna Chance, who will portray the part of the loving and dutiful wife; Nellie Beaumont, who will be seen as the gay soubrette; Fred Wayne, the of

It is claimed Mr. Whitney has spent upwards of $50,000 in scenery and cosnes for the "Isle of Spice," and that it will surpass anything seen here this season. The piece has just closed a most successful and phenomenal run at the Majestic Theatre, New York City, and has a record of 150 nights in Chicago and also played to capacity busi-one of those Irish comedians who can be thoroly funny without caricaturing. George Wilson, the well-known minstrel man, has a lot of new songs and sayings. Hickey and Nelson are two of the funniest people on the stage. They are presenting a farce which they style "Twisted and Tangled in a Child's Restaurant." Kelly and Violette will offer a charming singing sketch. The Avon Comedy Four wire dish up plenty of fun, and Kennedy and Quatrellal, together with the Kinetograph, will complete the bill.

The attraction which the management of the Star Theatre announces for next week is the Fay Foster Company, famous as the oldest burlesque organization in America. Captain Keller and his "Royal Zouave Girls" (seventeen of them) is the feature act, and the way these fair maids go about their work is a revelation. Miss Louis Dacre is easily the happy girl, as she is billed. Miss Zoe Mathews, a product of the west, is as dainty a bit of female loveliness as has ever been seen with a burlesque show. Guelph Herald: Right well, then, has the province cause to rejoice at the victory of Wednesday. Its honor has been placed in the hands of a man whose final message was: "My last word to the independent electors of Ontario is, I pledge honest government for this province. It will triumph to morrow. Make its majority as latge as possible." Mr. Whitney has manfully stood for years as the champion of clean, decent, honest government. Foday his opportunity has come to carry clean, decent, honest government, 10 day his opportunity has come to carry out his pledge. Will he fail? Will he too deceive us? We think not.
