COMMENT ONTHE PROFESSIONAL SCULLING
RACE BETWEEN BARRY AND TOWNSEnglish Exchanges State That the English Oarsman Defeated His Opponent by Two Lengths After a Magnificent Race.

A detailed account of the professional sculling match between Messrs. Barry and Towns, which took place several weeks ago, is contained in English exchanges just to hand. One of these descriptions follows:

Following upon an interval of eight years, the professional sculling championship of England was once more decided upon the Thames from Putney bridge to the ship, at Mortlake, yesterday afternoon, and for the first time since 1808 an Englishman won. That year W. A. Barry beat George Towns but during the following seasons Towns triumphed respectively over both W. A. Barry and J. Wray. Since then the competition has remained forgotten. A younger brother of W. A. Barry, however, during recent years kept on starting the best judges of rowing on the Thames with some wonderful performances in sprint sculling handicaps, and at length Ernest Barry received sufficient support to induce George Towns to emerge from announced retirement and travel to England to row again for his own championship. £200 a side, and "The Sportsman" cup. This race was rowed yesterday under ideal conditions, and amid much enthusiasm, the spoils went to the Englishman after a professional sculling from its present position. Both men rowed themselves to a complete standstill, but once more the old adage respecting youth being served becomes applicable. Towns was giving away 13 years in age, an inch or two in height and a few pounds in weight, but for a regularly slow beginner and great stayer, Towns surprised everybody by being ahead in less than a minute and a half. Approaching Harold's, Barry spurred hard to catch Towns who had taken his opponent's water, but the wary Australian drew out again, and the Englishman Bridge Towns possessed the advantage of half a length.

From this point to the top of Chick Eyst, Barry led the inside stroke and it was here that the Englishman made his supreme effort. Going up rapidly Barry was just about level with the Englishman, and a little further on Towns began to show signs of distress. The Australian stuck pluckily to his business, however, but Barry got so far ahead that

The following letter was read from the New Brunswick trustees of the McLellan Cup:

To the Secretary of the Carleton Curling Club:

Sir:—The Thistle Curling Club places itself on record as being opposed to competing in the McLellan Cup competition for another season, unless the rules of the competition are amended to provide that the club holding the cup shall only be able to win a magnificent race by a club from provinces in which the defending club is not located.

(Signed) J. S. GREGORY, N. B. Trustee.

The club concurred in this view. Two members, A. E. McLeod and George W. Scott, were elected. The officers of the club were appointed an entertainment committee. A committee consisting of Mr. F. Mooney and the president, was appointed to look after the matter of having incandescent lights placed in the rink.

STEAMER EXPLODES
AND THREE ARE DEAD

North Bay, Ont., Nov. 10.—Three men at least met death between 5 and 6 o'clock this evening at Temiskaming Landing on Lake Temiskaming by an explosion on the steamer Temiskaming of the Temiskaming Navigation Company. The steamer was just coming into dock from New Liskeard when without any warning it exploded, causing terrible confusion among the passengers and crew, and throwing some of them into the lake, with the result of the death of three.

J. Menard and Berghougan, firemen, are known to be dead. McLeod, Mack and Scott, were elected. The officers of the club were appointed an entertainment committee. A committee consisting of Mr. F. Mooney and the president, was appointed to look after the matter of having incandescent lights placed in the rink.

LAST NIGHT'S
BOXING SHOWExhibition in Queens Rink
Drew 400 People—Two Interesting Bouts.

The boxing exhibition in the Queens Rink last night was witnessed by about 400 men and boys. There were no ladies present. From a standpoint of scientific boxing the bouts were good exhibitions but there was hardly enough "rough house" to suit some of the fancy who were present and frequently the boxers were hissed because they showed no disposition to kill each other.

There was considerable horse play about the second bout Jack Twin Sullivan several times feigned grogginess but at no time was he actually downed. Some of those who saw the go were however, fooled and thought his lengthy opponent had it on the Twin.

Referee Jack Powers announced before the bout commenced that the exhibition was purely a scientific one between friends, and consequently there would be no decision.

The first bout was between Mike Twin Sullivan and Young Mahoney, a sturdy lad from Lawrence, Mass. The half-headed boxer had the advantage in height, but the go was a very extremely one-sided affair. Sullivan was the better of the bout and showed a disposition to mix it with the best.

In the third round he tipped Mahoney on the nose and brought a shower of blood, but outside of this neither man was marked. The bout ended in a hurricane exhibition of in-fighting, both men mixing it in the centre of the ring.

Burns was himself the first to acknowledge the corn after the bout, when he was over the top. With a heavy heart he ever ran up against, said Burns in his dressing room that night. "I wonder what this fellow Flynn is made of any how."

Tommy certainly looked the part. Both his eyes were badly swollen and his lip was swollen and sore. It took his hands the better part of three days to do the swelling. Jack Johnson won the fight, but he was not the man to put up with a masterful tale.

Abbe Allen once said: "If I am ever whipped it will be after such a desperate battle that the police will have to jump into the ring to prevent me being killed. I'll never again." I believe it will be the same with Burns. Whatever else may be said of the Canuck's fighting ability it will be a severe test when he is up against the fight of his life, and if Jack Johnson conquers the white man he will surely be deserving of all the credit in the world.

If there is any truth in the story that Johnson harbors even an ounce of yellow in his fighting make up, then heaven help him when he goes up against the fight of his life, and if Burns to do so desperately, and Johnson will be compelled to come through with everything he carries in stock in the way of fighting material.

ST. DAVID'S Y. P. A.

Interesting Meeting Held Last Evening—Papers Read on the Bible.

The programme presented at the meeting of St. David's Y. P. A. last night was a very interesting one. The gathering, which was a large one, was under the auspices of the Biblical committee. During the evening the papers were read by McGowan and Miss Thompson and special music by the choir.

The papers of the evening were on the Bible, by Miss E. E. Forbes, on the authorized version; by Frank Morrison on the Revised Version; and by Hon. R. J. Ritchie on the Douay Version.

Miss Forbes, besides dealing with the authorized version, gave a brief history of the earlier English Bible. Mr. McGowan told of the movement which culminated in the revision of the Bible and of the manner in which the work was carried out. The paper was very interesting and was the work of a number of English scholars in Douay College and had its basis the Latin Vulgate.

"YOUNG LAUGHERY" WON

Boston, Mass., Nov. 10.—Young Laughery of Philadelphia, who two weeks ago drew a draw with "Tommy" Quill, of Brockton, tonight defeated Quill before a large crowd. The bout was fast and furious, both men sticking to in-fighting for nearly all the match. The decision met with favor.

Toronto, Nov. 10.—(Special)—Rev. A. C. Courtois delivered a paper on the Christian Guard and had filled other offices in Methodist churches.

Had Heart Trouble and Shortness of Breath
For Six Years.

Was Weak and Thin—Only Weighed
Seventy-three Pounds. Now
Weighs One Hundred and Thirteen.

When you find your heart the least bit out of rhythm, your nerves unbalanced, your breath short, don't wait until you are prostrated on a bed of sickness. Take Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. They'll put you in such condition you'll never know you have a heart, make your nerves strong and your whole being thrill with new life.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills cured Mrs. K. E. Bright, Burnaby, Ont. She writes: "I was greatly troubled, for six years, with my heart and shortness of breath. I could not walk eight rods without resting, and for five times in that short time I got so weak and thin I only weighed seventy-three pounds. I decided at last to take Mil
