to do centum evonts, who, on their arrival there and of their own free well, went to the cutholic missionary and assured him that natwithstanding all efforts made to induce them Av chunge their religion, their had been always fuithful to it and that they intended to live and die as cuthalies. The gordenn of the of there two young men, has travelled all the way from Onion Lake to St albert, topray orre to interpene in his behalf with we view to have his son taken out of an establishment where the is not fermathed to profess This religion, and he assured me that he never had in any way given his authority to the Revel Clark to teach the fratest out doctrine to his son. The Read Truciful had asked the name and the religion of the child. This Inclean who was and ing

Indian Affairs. (RG 10, Volume 3933, file 117,657-1)