SEC. TAFT IS IN FAVOR OF TARIFF REVISION

Introduced as "Next President of United States" He Makes an Important Speech--Endorses the Anti-Trust Programme and Would Jail the Law Breakers.

At Cleveland, Ohio, last Monday evening, Secretary William H. Taft, who is expected to be the next republican candidate for the presidency, and who was introduced as "the next president of the United States," made a very important speech, declaring himself in favor of tariff revision, and in full accord with Roosevelt's anti-trust policy. We quote: "Every time that there is a fall in the price of stocks in Wall Street, those who are injuriously affected condemn the President with great bitterness as responsible for their losses. Just at present there has been a very serious depression in the values of marketable securities, and it is said that the President's attitude toward corporations has been the cause of this. Such critics fail to observe that there has been a similar decrease in the marketable value—not only of railway stocks but of Government bonds abroad, and that there is a stringency in the markets of the world. But more than this, if the prosecution of dishonesty and illegal practices, like the giving and taking of rebates and the destruction of competition by monopoly, is to injure the market for stocks on the Stock Exchange, then this is a burden that must be borne and must be charged—not to the head of the nation, whose duty it is to uphold for an amendment of the anti-trust law defining in more details the evils against which it is aimed, making clearer the distinction between lawful agreements reasonably restraining trade and those which are pernicious in their effect, and particularly denouncing the various devices for monopolizing trade which have been invented since the passage of the act to be used in actual practice. The decisions of the courts and the experience of executive and prosecuting officers make the framing of such a statute possible. It will have the good effect of making much clearer to those business men who would obey the law the methods to be avoided.

WHY TRUST PROMOTERS HAVE NOT BEEN IMPRISONED.

"Mr. Bryan is continually asking why some of the managers of unlawful trusts have not been convicted and sent to the penitentiary. I sympathize with him in his wish that this may be done, because I think that the imprisonment of one or two would have a most healthy effect throughout the country, but even without such imprisonment I believe that the prosecution of these trusts is now on foot and the injunctions which have already been issued, have had a marked effect on business methods. One reason for the small number of sentences of imprisonment in trust prosecutions is that the revelations of unlawful trust methods and dishonesty have been chiefly made known in secret rebates and as I have already said, the Elkins act, until amended by the rate bill only prescribed fines as a mode of punishment in such cases.

MR. ROOSEVELT'S POLICIES ARE NOT SOCIALISTIC.

"Critics of President Roosevelt denounce his policies as Socialistic and likely to lead to the institution of private property. The institution of private property next to that of civil liberty is the most important factor in all that is good in modern society. It is indispensable to individualism and is one of the two chief means by which man raised himself from a low estate near to that of the beasts of the field to his present condition. But if the people are not convinced that it is possible to eradicate the evils and abuses arising from the unscrupulous use of wealth and corporate combination under the system of private property, the movement toward its abolition and the adoption of socialism in some form will gain great strength.

President Roosevelt would stop this movement by a demonstration that it is possible under the system of private property, by efficient government regulation, supervision and prosecution, to stamp out the evils which have created our social unrest. He knows what a full remedy socialism will prove to be. Socialism looks to a dead level of life, to an absence of all motive for material progress, to a stagnation in everything. It involves a lack of individual freedom and requires an official tyranny to carry out its system that finds fault with the people who see real wrongs in the body politic and social.

Special interest was manifested in Secretary Taft's utterance on the tariff. He reiterated his previous declaration in favor of revision and declared that it would be both wiser and safer for the Republican party to fall to pledge itself to revise the Dingley law as soon after the next Presidential election as possible.

THE IRISH MEMBERS SAY ASHTOWN DID IT

Charge Him With Exploding Bomb for Political Purposes—Enquiry Being Made.

In the British house of commons this week Irish members made the sensational suggestion that Lord Ashtown blew up his own house for political purposes. Jeremiah McVeagh, Nationalist member from Down, asked Mr. Birrell, secretary for Ireland, whether it was intended to hold a special inquiry in view of the fact that "it had already been proved" that the alleged outrage was the work of residents of Lord Ashtown's house. Mr. Birrell replied that the most careful investigations were being made, but that at present there was no proof that residents of the house were guilty. Patrick O'Brien, Nationalist from Kilkeny, thereupon declared that it was believed in the District of Drumbo that Lord Ashtown himself was responsible for the explosion, and he asked Mr. Birrell to cause inquiries to be made into the possibility of Ashtown himself committing the alleged outrage in order to give a fillip to his infamous business of defaming Ireland by circulating fictitious tales of outrages.

Early on the morning of August 12 a bomb that had been placed on the window-sill of the room in which Lord Ashtown was asleep in his house, Glenahira Lodge, near Clonmel, exploded, shattering one side of the house and part of the interior. Lord Ashtown making his escape from his room just in time to escape the fall of a mass of debris. He had arrived at the Lodge from another part of Ireland on the previous evening.

The bomb consisted of about seven pounds of blasting powder in an iron pot, with three lighted fuses attached. The carpets and curtains of the drawing room had also been saturated with petroleum and caught fire from the explosion, but the flames were extinguished.

Lord Ashtown has been very active in his opposition to the cattle boycott in the West of Ireland, and attributes the outrage to people who had come thence to Glenahira for the purpose of assassinating him.

THE WORLD MAN HAPPY

W. F. Maclean, M. P., Is Not Worried by Press Comments Upon His Conduct and Career.

Commenting on the St. John Sun's recent criticism of W. F. Maclean, M.P., his paper, the Toronto World, says:—
The World asked the member for South York what he thought of this opinion of him, and he said he thought it was too flattering. Indeed, he was getting off easy. When he looked across the 49th parallel and saw what they were saying of those who upheld public rights there; of those who were enforcing respect for public law, and who were, because of that, held up as "wreckers," as "disturbers of prosperity," as "Socialists," as "White House cranks," and all kinds of other hard names, he thought he was getting off easy with being called "the man with the knife," or "brigand," or "bandit." But, admitting that he was a "bandit," an "Ishmalite," the people of Port Hope and Cobourg were saving 25 cents and 30 cents on each trip to Toronto, and a great many other people in other places were making a proportionate saving in railway travel, and he didn't mind the hard names. He rather liked these attentions. They helped to make him picturesque, at least, and picturesque was quite a useful thing to have about the house. It was often gentlemen who could not make themselves picturesque, who went out to "touch up a bit" those whom they didn't like. And finally, he said that, after reading Mr. Borden's program, as outlined at Halifax last night, that gentleman, too, might be called "a bandit" before long, and after Mr. Roosevelt's speech of yesterday, he, too, might be styled an "Ishmalite."

MONTREAL'S GROWTH

As the Montreal city assessors will soon have completed the work of assessing property in the city for the current year, clerks at the city hall have for some days past been figuring on what the increase in property value for 1907 will be. According to the figures completed it appears that the total increase for the current year in assessed real estate values will be no less than $12,000,000. Such an increase is considered phenomenal when it is remembered that last year the values made the record increase of $21,000,000.

PEOPLE OF NOTE

Yuan Shih-Kai

Yuan Shih-Kai, who is the viceroy of the Chinese province of Pechili in which the Chinese national capital, Peking, is situated, is the man who is responsible for most of the headway made in remodeling the antique Chinese provincial armies. He has also recently had charge of the treaties for the opening up of sixteen towns in Manchuria to the trade of the world. He has recently come out with a grave rebuke to the native element for their attacks on American and British missionaries in China. While immensely wealthy he is not hated by the poverty-stricken millions of China and is termed by foreign diplomats "the strongest man in modern China."

SMASH-UP ON I. C. R.

Eight Cars Off the Track at Dalhousie Junction.

Moncton, N. B., Aug. 22.—The Ocean Limited and afternoon express from Campbellton were blocked five or six hours today by a run-off at Dalhousie Junction. The night freight was wrecked by a broken journal on a Grand Trunk car loaded with stone. Eight cars were derailed and three or four badly smashed up. About 100 yards of track is badly torn up. None of the train hands were injured. The train was in charge of Conductor Ferguson. The wreck occurred just before the Ocean Limited and Campbellton express were due at that point. This is the first bad run-off for several months.

Wm. O. Wallace

Hopewell Hill, Aug. 21.—The friends of Wm. O. Wallace, of Curryville, Albert county, regretted to hear of his death, which occurred yesterday at the Riverside hospital, where he had undergone an operation on Monday for an internal trouble that had been aggravated by an accident a week ago. After the accident Mr. Wallace's condition became very critical and his life was despaired of by the attending physicians, an operation being decided upon as the only thing that could be done. The patient rallied favorably from the operation and on Tuesday was doing satisfactorily, but yesterday unfavorable symptoms developed, death resulting late yesterday afternoon. Mr. Wallace, who was unmarried, was about 60 years of age and was a man of more than ordinary intelligence. He is survived by one sister, Margaret Jane, and three brothers, Leander, of Lower Cape; John, at home, and James, residing in the States. The deceased was a son of the late David Wallace, of Curryville.
