

the Colonial Committee and the Presbyterian Church of Ireland, or otherwise, to procure the services of a well qualified Tutor whose department shall be that of English and Classical Literature, and general mental training.

III.—That they shall use diligence in procuring the funds necessary for the effective maintenance of the institution, and that for this purpose they are authorised to use such steps as may appear necessary.

Fifth.—That the arrangements of the course of study and the internal discipline of the College shall, during the ensuing session, be committed to the Professors. Dr. Willis to be Chairman of the Professors' Court.

Sixth.—That the appointment of the Revd. Wm. Rintoul as Professor of Hebrew be sanctioned as an interim appointment, but that the final arrangement as to this department be deferred until it become apparent what provision is to be made for the Chair of Oriental Literature in King's College, and how far the liberality of the people will sustain the Synod in increasing the permanent staff of Professors.

Seventh.—That the General Committee be empowered to fix the salaries of Mr. Rintoul and of the Tutor above referred to, and also to co-operate as heretofore in the administration of the Toronto Academy.

Eighth.—That a Committee be appointed to draw up, after consulting with the Professors of Knox's College and the Professors of New College, Edinburgh, a constitution for the College, including arrangements as to the Government, discipline, and curriculum of study, and as to the standard of attainments to be required of applicants for admission, coming either from Congregations in connexion with the Synod, or from other quarters—to transmit said scheme when prepared to Presbyteries for advice, and to report to the Synod at their next meeting: and that the said Committee shall consist of the following members: Mr. Bayne, Mr. Robb, Mr. Stark, Mr. Reid, Mr. Gregg, Mr. Boyd, Mr. Leishman,—Mr. Reid, convener.

Ninth.—That the Synod tender their thanks to the Treasurers of the General and Bursary Funds, and request their continuance in office.
