HE CAUGHT THE THIEF AT WORK

Passenger on Calvin Austin Nabbed Man in His Stateroom AN OLD OFFENDER. An elderly passenger arrived here this morning on the Calvin Austin who did the traveling public and steamship company a service of no little value by diving through his stateroom window last evening just as the steamer was about to leave her Boston wharf, and collar a sneak thief for whom the company's officers say they have been looking for two years.

The Eastern steamship company steamer Calvin Austin, arrived in port this morning from Boston, direct, and landed 401 passengers. The Norwegian steamship Thorax left Jacksonville, Florida, last Saturday for Dorchester, via Fernandina with a cargo of pitch pine lumber.

Believed He is Responsible for the Series of Robberies on the Steamer—Arrested Just Before Boat Left Boston for Saint John. "An elderly passenger arrived here this morning on the Calvin Austin who did the traveling public and steamship company a service of no little value by diving through his stateroom window last evening just as the steamer was about to leave her Boston wharf, and collar a sneak thief for whom the company's officers say they have been looking for two years.

The Free Public Library was closed all day yesterday and will probably remain closed for about two weeks during which time the building will be in the hands of the painters. The Natural History Society will hold its next outing on Thursday, July 21.

The window of the stateroom was open, and while it was narrow the passenger dived through it without a moment's hesitation, landed on his hands, recovered his feet, raised the cry of "Stop thief!" and rushed around to the opposite side of the boat where the thief must emerge if he were seeking to go ashore.

ITALIAN CASE WAS AGAIN ADJOURNED

Policeman Rankine the Only Witness Examined at This Morning's Session. There was quite a crowd in the police court this forenoon when the Italian murder case was again taken up. The session, however, was a short one, only one witness, Policeman Charles H. Rankine, being put on the stand. The prisoner when brought into court betrayed little if any interest in the proceedings.

Twenty Brown-Tail Moths are Captured. So far this summer twenty specimens of the brown tail moth, males, have been captured in this city. Of these, A. Gordon Leavitt has taken sixteen. Last night he got two. One of these was under the electric light near Zion Methodist church; the other was at the corner of Coburg and Sewall streets. Four of the moths were captured and sent to Mr. Leavitt for identification. Mr. Leavitt thinks that the fact so many have been found argues that they are more numerous in this province than ever before.
