HEAD OFFICE -- TORONTO

ST. JOHN, N.B., Branch J. M. CHRISTIE, Manager

COL. ADAMI APPOINTED.
McGill Professor Goes to University of Liverpool.

(Montreal Gazette.)

That the University of Liverpool, England, has decided to offer its vice-chancellorship to Lieut.-Col. J. G. Adami, professor of bacteriology at McGill University, was the statement made in a cable dispatch received yesterday. The name suffered in transmission, so that the statement might have been taken to apply to another member of the professorial staff, were it not that the chair which Lieut.-Colonel Adami holds was mentioned. For the past four years Lieut.-Colonel Adami has been overseas as an officer in the Canadian Army

Medical Services, during most of which period he has been engaged at Canadian headquarters in London upon completion of C. A. M. C. records, with a view of issuing a complete record of the work done by the Canadian medical services. It was only recently that he issued a work dealing with the subject. No one in Montreal had any knowledge of the appointment yesterday, the only mention being that contained in the dispatch.

A cable received by the Gazette through the New York Times states that Colonel Adami has been appointed to the post.

SMOKE MACDONALD'S INDEX

Will a Slaughter of Jews Be Next European Horror?

While the sporadic persecutions and massacres of Jews in Russia, Poland, Roumania, and the Ukraine, already reported, are disturbing in themselves, they are but scattered sparks compared to the conflagration some observers foresee. Thus William G. Shepherd, in a Paris dispatch to the New York Evening Post says that not only leading Jews in France but even notable Russian authorities, including Kerensky, "admit the possibility that the next Russian horror will consist of attacks on Jews." In the course of a dispatch from Paris a correspondent to the New York Day, a Jewish paper, says regarding the massacres in the Ukraine that "the purpose is apparently to exterminate the entire Jewish population."

Regarding the reported persecution of Jews in Poland, Rev. Dr. H. Pereira Mendes, of New York, declares that that country "is now at the bar of the world's judgment, for the world has to choose between Turkish atrocities in Armenia, German atrocities in Belgium, and Polish atrocities in Poland."

Poles in New York, and the new Polish Premier Paderewski, deny that pogroms have occurred in Poland, and characterize these charges as anti-Polish and pro-German propaganda. To substantiate these denials the Polish Information Bureau cites Dr. Vernon Kellogg, recently returned to New York from Poland, who in an interview published in the New York Times states that while "there were constant rumors of difficulties of one kind and another between the Jews and the Poles," he did not find evidence of any widespread massacres.
