Little Beauty Chats

What Constitutes the Perfect Hand

ONE'S toilet when attending any social function must differ from the toilet of Alice-by-the-fire. And you must understand the texture and because, since, differ greatly. You should watch the effect of different preparations on your own skin until you find those suited to it. Then stick to them.

Let me say here, parenthetically, that many beauty preparations fail to get good results from preparations over which their friends enthuse because, since, differ greatly. You should watch the effect of different preparations on your own skin until you find those suited to it. Then stick to them.

My readers must remember that beauty preparations are merely aids and they do not rectify the fundamental basis of beauty. The main culture of beauty should depend on natural aids for improving circulation and condition of the blood, through proper exercise and through wholesome foods and habits of living.

But to go back—here is the way to guard your skin when going out. For most women with a delicate, dry skin I have found the following cream gives splendid results: Orange flower water (triple), six ounces. Decolorized alcohol, one and one-half ounces.

- Bitter almonds, blanched, one ounce.
 - White wax, one dram.
 - Spermaceti, one dram.
 - Oil of benne, one dram.
 - Shaving cream, one dram.
 - Oil of bergamot, twelve drops.
 - Oil of cloves, six drops.
 - Oil of neroli bigarade, six drops.
 - Powder, one-fifth ounce.
- After applying this cream use lightly a good grade of fine powder. If you care to

Daily Hints For the Cook

- SIX-EGG OMELET.
The whites of 6 eggs beaten stiff and set aside. Add salt and pepper to the yolks and beat thoroughly. Now add half of the whites and 7 tablespoons of milk and stir lightly together. Pour into hot buttered pan and cook five minutes on stove. Then carefully spread the rest of the frosting on half the omelet and place pan in oven to finish cooking. When done cut through the middle and fold over up on the frosting. Put on platter and pour cream sauce around it, or put current jelly on before folding and serve without sauce.
- HASH WITH EGGS.
One cup of boiled ham, chopped fine, one cup of potato, mashed or chopped, one cup of cracker or bread crumbs; season well, mix all together with water, put in a deep plate, smooth it over, and then make little dents in the top large enough to hold six eggs. Put it in the oven and heat it through, then remove and drop an egg in each of the places, and return it to the oven till the eggs are cooked.

IF (Rudyard Kipling)

"If you can keep your head when all about you
Are losing theirs and blaming it on you;
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
But make allowances for their doubting,
too;
If you can wait and not be tired by waiting,
Or being lied about, don't deal in lies,
Or being hated don't give way to hating,
And yet don't look too good, nor talk too wise;
If you can dream—and not make dreams
your master;
If you can think—and not make thoughts
your ally;
If you can meet with triumph and disaster
And treat those two imposters just the same;
If you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken
Twisted by knave to make a trap for you,
Or watch the things you gave your life to
Broken, and stoop and build 'em up with worn-out tools;
If you can make one heap of all your winnings
And risk it on one turn of pitch-and-toss
And lose, and start again at your beginnings,
And never breathe a word about your loss;
If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew
To serve your turn long after they are gone
And see your goods when there's nothing in 'em
Except the will which says to them:—
'Hold on!'
If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with kings—nor lose the common touch;
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you,
If all men count with you, but none too much;
If you can fill the unforgetting minute
With sixty seconds' worth of distance run,
—Yours is the earth and everything that's in it,
And—which is more—you'll be a man,
My son!

on her card. She is an "aide" on the staff of Miss Paul, and wife of Indora King, secretary of the National Referendum League. Mrs. King is to the left of Miss Paul.

Prof. Eliza Hardy Lord, of New York, is also doing much of the work necessary in placing the woman's cause before congress. She was formerly dean of women at the Western Reserve University, Cleveland. She wears a hat in the picture.

FOUR WOMEN DIRECTING NATIONAL SUFFRAGE FIGHT IN WASHINGTON

Miss Alice Paul, chairman of the congressional committee of the National Women's Suffrage Association, is the girl in the cap and gown. She is the exact antithesis of the conventional idea of a woman's suffrage leader, being small and delicate. She comes from a family of old Pennsylvania Quakers—the people who have been first in the fight for so many reforms affecting fundamental democracy.

NOT AS BLACK AS PAINTED.

Chatnam World—The capture of a black fox and eight pups, in Nowlanville, is reported. The find is worth $50,000. The finder has received several offers, but is wisely holding on to the animal. The above is the essence of a report that gained circulation here the other day. Two of our future millionaires drove out to the scene, through the mud, the other night, with visions of wealth in mind, and saw the pups. The mother was red, and the pups did not look as black as reports had painted them. The young men are reticent.

The Best Day's Baking

Good—better—best! The class to which your flour belongs determines the success of your baking. Good flours are common. Better flours are not at all rare. But there is only one flour that has the uniform fineness, the uniform quality, and the superlative nourishment that entitle it to be called best—and its name is Rainbow Flour.

We accept only the best hard wheat in the world for Rainbow Flour. We leave only the cream of this wheat after we have milled it. There's not one speck of fibre, not a trace of skin or germ. Only the fullest nutriment of the wheat is present in Rainbow Flour. Rainbow Flour is your guide-post to the best day's baking. It leads straight up the happy road to results. Don't fail to try some.
