

LOCAL NEWS

It was announced by the postmaster last evening that the general post office in this city would adopt daylight time from midnight May 22 until midnight Sept. 11.

Major A. A. Bartlett of Charlottetown gave an illustrated lecture on Venice at the Art Club last evening. A vote of thanks was moved by W. Frank Hatheway and W. Shives Fisher, who presided, tendered the vote.

For alleged racing in Rothesay avenue last evening about 8 p. m., Provincial Constable Robert Crawford reported automobile No. 9224 and auto-truck No. 258. The offenders will come before Magistrate Adams, of Brookville, in a few days.

Mayor Schofield and Commissioners Prink, Thornton, Bullock and Jones made several inspections yesterday, including the proposed site of the overhead bridge near the falls and the sites of pipe laying for water extensions. The proposed North End playgrounds were also inspected.

The annual meeting of the Cornwall and York Mills was held yesterday afternoon and the directors were re-elected. A. Bruce, secretary-treasurer, was clerk at the meeting and the president, J. F. Robertson, presided. Mr. Boyd of Cornwall, Ont., general superintendent of the Canadian Cottons, Limited, was present.

The ladies' auxiliary of the Y. M. H. A. held a pantry sale yesterday afternoon in the Imperial Theatre lobby under the direction of Mrs. L. Isaacs, assisted by Mrs. A. S. Hart, Mrs. A. Lesser and Mrs. J. Goldman. The proceeds are for the purchase of a new flag for the building.

The body of Maurice Downing, who was drowned off Long wharf recently, was viewed last night. Dr. H. L. Abramson reported that death was due to drowning. Dr. W. L. Warwick will act as coroner and the following jury has been empaneled: F. Potts, Daniel Jackson, Howard W. Phinney, J. Charles Berry, William Crabbe, George H. MacLaughlin and Ernest J. Todd.

A case against Crockett & McMillan charged with supplying invalid port wine to Bertha Johnson without a prescription, was resumed in the police court yesterday afternoon. Mr. McMillan and John Ferguson both said they had made no sales the evening in question. The case was postponed until next Thursday. Chief Inspector W. D. Wilson conducted the prosecution and W. J. Mahoney acted for the defense.

The Women's Hospital Aid held a meeting in the board of trade rooms yesterday afternoon with Mrs. J. V. McLeish in the chair. Mrs. R. Duncan Smith, treasurer, resigned as convener of the house committee and Mrs. Walter was appointed, while Mrs. A. B. Gilbert was added to the committee. The matter of linen furnishing for the new nurses' home was laid on the table. The treasurer reported a balance on hand of $5,154.28. Mrs. A. J. Mulvey was appointed convener of the visiting committee and Mrs. T. H. Estabrooks reported for the committee. A plan to have nurses in uniform wait on the luncheon given to the delegates to the National Council of Women was outlined by Mrs. W. W. White. Representatives of the various denominations reported on their work.

SHAMROCK'S CREW GO ON WATERWAGON—UNTIL THEY GET BACK TO REAL STUFF
New York, May 21.—The thirty husky lads who will handle the ropes on Lip-ton's Shamrock IV in the coming cup races have decided that it is easier to go on the water wagon than to try to find joy or relaxation in the mysterious liquids being sold here. So, in parched disgust, they have taken the pledge until the big race is over.
"This bloomin' stuff you call 'arf-and-'arf of a per cent would put a cramp in a blighter's soul," said one of the Sham-rock men. "If I don't see how the H-American pubs can sell it, I can't see what you want of the H-American's Cup if you 'ave'n't anything better than that to put in it."

S. of E. CONCERT.
The Sons of England gave a delightful concert last evening in the St. John's Institute before a large audience. The programme was a good one and applause unstinted. The proceedings of the evening were for the Boys' Club. Mr. Brindle was chairman and the following took part in the programme: Mrs. Southouse, C. Regan, C. Cromwell, Miss McMahon, the Jones quartette, Miss Roberts, Mrs. Smith, G. Davidson, Victor Regan, Mr. Smith, Mr. Haisall, Mr. Punter, Fred Wetmore, Mr. Wetmore, Mr. Whitaker, Mr. Dennison, Roland Izzard, Mr. Parker, Mr. Shears, Mr. Milton and Mr. Brindle.

THE RENFORTH CASE

A preliminary hearing was commenced yesterday in a case against Messrs. Beverly, Kennedy, Currie, Ross and Wilkinson, charged with manslaughter, before Stipendiary Magistrate P. W. F. Brewster at Hampton. On account of the absence of Max Dean, one of the accused, who is too ill to be in court, the case was postponed until July 20. Bail was granted for $1,000 each with two $500 sureties. Dr. J. B. M. Baxter, K. C., appeared for Beverly and Kennedy; George W. Fowler, K. C., appeared for Dean, Currie, Ross and Wilkinson, while Dr. W. B. Wallace, K. C., appeared for the crown. The sureties were provided as follows: Daniel J. Purdy and Jarvis C. Purdy, for Beverly; Thomas Dean and Dr. J. B. M. Baxter, for Kennedy; William T. Bell and Charles Wilkinson, for Currie; George W. Fowler and Thos. Dean, for Ross; William T. Bell and Charles Wilkinson, for Wilkinson.

The death of Mrs. Mary J. Dearn, widow of John Dearn, occurred on May 20, at her residence, 292 Germain street. She is survived by one son, Frank of Hamilton (Ont.); two daughters, Miss Monica and Miss Anna of this city, and one sister, Mrs. A. J. Lane of this city. The funeral will take place on Saturday morning from her late residence to the Church of St. John the Baptist, Broad street.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

J. M. Gibbon of the C. P. R. publicity department, W. H. Allen, president of the New Brunswick Guides Association; Morris Ackerman, sporting writer of Cleveland, Ohio, and J. M. Alexander, picture operator of the department of trade and commerce, Ottawa, returned from Cain's river to Fredericton Wednesday from an extended fishing trip. Mr. Gibbon accidentally fell overboard while landing a large fish. While searching for weapons in a car in West 55th street, New York city, last night, Sergeant Detective John Fitzpatrick was shot twice in the back and seriously wounded by an unidentified confederate of two automobile thieves. The thieves escaped.

The following New Brunswick prize winners were announced by Hon. J. A. Calder, minister of immigration and colonization, who authorized a composition contest in which the candidates were to tell their experiences in Canada as settlers: First, James T. Clinton, Millstream, N. B.; second, George H. Lucas, Sussex, N. B.; third, James Dykes, Hoyt Station, N. B.

A delegation of rural postmasters waited on members of the civil service commissions yesterday, presided over by Hon. Dr. J. W. Roche, chairman, and asked for increased remuneration on the sale of stamps.

The detectives questioned the chauffeur, Thomas Kraus, forty-seven years old, of 1109 Teller avenue, The Bronx, and Edward McGirr, thirty-four years old, bartender of Kough's cafe, in front of which the truck was standing, as to what the cases contained. They were told, they allege, that the cases contained catsup, but investigation disclosed forty boxes of whiskey, containing in all 276 quarts of contraband stock. Both the chauffeur and the bartender were arrested, charged with violating the Volstead Act.

To Support Nitti.
Rome, May 21.—Radical, Liberal-Democratic, Constitutional-Democratic, and Reformist party leaders held separate meetings last night and decided to support Premier Nitti's new cabinet.

EAST ST. JOHN SCHOOL BOARD.

A meeting of the East St. John school board was held last evening in the Edith avenue Mission hall, with the chairman, W. F. Burdett, in the chair. The meeting was called to authorize the trustees to acquire land and erect a schoolhouse. It was found that the meeting had been called in an irregular manner so no action could be taken. There was considerable discussion on the choice of a site. The report of the committee appointed to select a site was received.

USE The Want Ad Way

RUM-RUNNERS REGAIN LIQUOR

Fired on by Officers, Swam Half Way Across River, but Recapture Boat.

Windsor, May 21.—Three Detroit rum runners ran a fusillade of revolver shots from deputy sheriffs, swam half way across the Detroit River, lost their rowboat with twenty-five cases of whiskey, later recovered both boat and liquor, and escaped.

The men had crossed to Sandwich in the evening for a boatload of whiskey. Shortly after midnight they started back across the river with the contraband, when deputy sheriffs in a launch gave chase and fired several shots.

The trio jumped overboard, and with bullets whistling around them swam half-way across the river to the American shore. The deputies captured the boat, tied it to their launch and started to Detroit. When the rum runner reached shore they obtained a fast launch and started after the deputies.

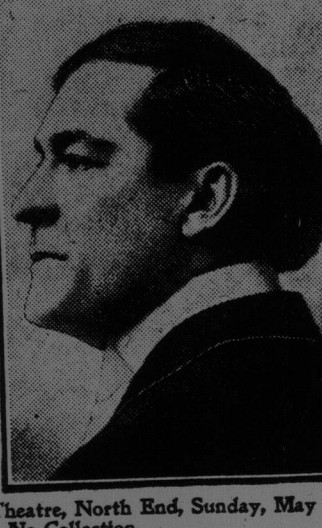

Overtaking the officers, one of them jumped into the rowboat, cut the towing line, threw it to his comrades, and before the deputies could get their launch turned around the rum runners, their rowboat and launch and the liquor had disappeared in the darkness, followed by a hail of bullets.

WESTERN MIRACLE.
Wheat Makes Mighty Effort to Keep Up With H. C. Per Bushel.

Regina, May 21.—Wheat measuring, eight inches from root to tip was brought to the city by Thomas Watt, of Fox Qu'Appelle. He says that he sowed it two weeks ago on summer fallow and that in all his experience in farming in the west he never saw wheat make such rapid growth in that period.

Who Are The Mormons?

ELDER JENSEN SAYS:—Those who really know the Mormons as they are, give them the best possible name—"I never met a people so free from sensualism and immorality of every kind as the Mormons are."—Olive N. Robinson. "We must admit that Salt Lake City is one of the most quiet, orderly and moral places in the world."—Bayard Taylor. "Account for it how we may, the Mormons were in many important respects morally, socially and industrially far in advance of their neighbors."—Chamber's Encyclopedia, Vol. 10, p. 215. "If we believed the Bible as much as the Mormons do, we would be far better Christians than we are."—Henry Ward Beecher. "Their (the Mormons) young men and women lead beautiful and wholesome lives."—Ella Wheeler Wilcox. "Indeed, among these Mormons the standard of sexual morality was unusually high."—Roosevelt. "I am proud of the Mormons."—Senator Ashburton, in U. S. Senate.
