

BABY.
His sceptre is a rattle,
His throne is mother's arms;
He reigns a tiny tyrant,
In all his dimpled charms!
Yet round his royal presence
Our loving hearts await;
Drooping the cradle,
And king by rite divine!

Whatever be his mandates,
No courtiers dare rebel;
His mother's chief of household,
Prime minister as well!
In yon perambulator,
His downy car of state,
Exact, rosy monarch,
What triumphs on him wait!

In purple ease and splendor,
Long, long he seeks to reign;
Alas! that royal greatness
Should ever be crowned;
He smiles at with disdain!
Alas! that royal greatness
Should ever be crowned;
Here comes a tiny stranger—
King B. by is dethroned.

DURING a tour through Scotland I saw the following startling announcement:—"The 'Duchess of Athole' leaves the 'Duke's Arms' punctually at six every morning, except Sunday." This seeming comical irregularity (explains the correspondent in whose diary the above entry occurs) has reference to a coach that carries the mails.

Why the Valve Jar is Superior to all Others for Preserving Fruit.

1. Because it is the only one in which the contents can be securely fastened, and cooked while thus fastened, without risk of an explosion.
2. It is the only one that is automatically sealed, therefore, the only Seal-Sealing Jar in the market.
3. It is so simple that no skill is required to use it successfully.
4. It is securely fastened when placed in the kettle, and being immersed, the fragrance of the contents is confined in the Jar, a more perfect vacuum produced and the handling of the hot jars entirely avoided.
5. It is well known that fruit jars which are closed with rubber fastenings trust to fermentation, and the effect upon the color and surrounding well understood by many housekeepers.
The Cover of the Valve Jar being a perfect airtight valve makes an explosion impossible, and entirely eliminates every difficulty that exists in other fastenings.
