A Pathetic Story

The following pathetic story is from "In the compartment which we en do so. tered were two young girls, and after ward a man came in accompanied by his wife. No sooner was the latter seated than she began counting slow and continued to repeat the words at short intervals.

"The young girls giggled and whisp event was the cause of her behaviour At last the man could contain himself aughing when you learn that my wife as lost three sons at the front. I am now taking her to an asylum." A sinister stillness at once made itself felt in the compartment.

Sazitary Matters

The Jew thousands of years before Christ, settling in a semi-tropical country, was forbibden to eat pork or shell-fish, and milk was designated a source of contagion. In the Talm 1 a method of slaughtering animals was prescribed which is acknowledged today in our markets as the mat sanitary. Five thousand years before Koch gave to the world the results of his researches in bacteriology, the Mosais law pointed out the danger to non from tuderculosis in cattle, but did not forbid infected poultry as food. It was only a few years ago that specialists discovered that fowl tubercules s was harmless to man.

The Mosaic lay also enforced the isolation of patients with contagi diseases and the burial of the dead outside all cities. These bints the Gentile world did not fully acce; t

The members of the Salvation Army have taken advantage of Christmas for their Financial benefit, and the local corps has raised with their Christmas festivities $166 00. At the annual banquet they realized $102. The Christmas Demonstration was repeated on Jan 5th, when two medals were presented to Victor Bowering and Tena Bishop Out of the three The Imperial Engine will wear well. It can be kept as cool as you want it. This means long life.

The Annual Missionary meeting will be held at Shearston Methodist Church on Monday, Jan. 10th, at 7 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Guy will be the speaker. A hearty welcome is extended to all.

Tena Bishop Out of the three medals given to the successful candidates in the C. H. E, two pupils from the S. A. School in Bay Roberts were the happy recipients. Victor Bowering gains the gold medal and Tena Bishop the bronze. The successful teacher, Capt. Roberts, is to be congratulated, and we certs, is to be congratulated, and we trust this shall act as a stimulus to the Carbon Leaf style. There is no order too small or none too large for me to handle.
