

PICTORIAL REVIEW OF CURRENT EVENTS

When this 60-ton engine crashed over a bridge on the Abbots-Langley-Watford road in England, falling 30 feet, no one was hurt, not even the engineer and fireman, who jumped successfully.

Co-authors of the new American tariff—Senators McCumber and Congressman Fordney (right), who is holding a copy of the bill.

A typical group of Greek artillerymen as they appeared in the recent fighting in Asia Minor.

South American twin beauties, Maria and Victoria de Anchorena of Buenos Aires, are visiting in London.

During initiation proceedings at Boston College, Genevieve Hamilton had to wade in the public frog pond.

At a mock auction on the steamship Paris, sailing from France to the United States, Miss Mary Hinch of Cincinnati was put on the block and sold for 1,000 francs, for the benefit of the orphans of France.

Hayden Talbot, a well-known American journalist in London, and his bride, Mrs. Esther Roof Mackenzie.

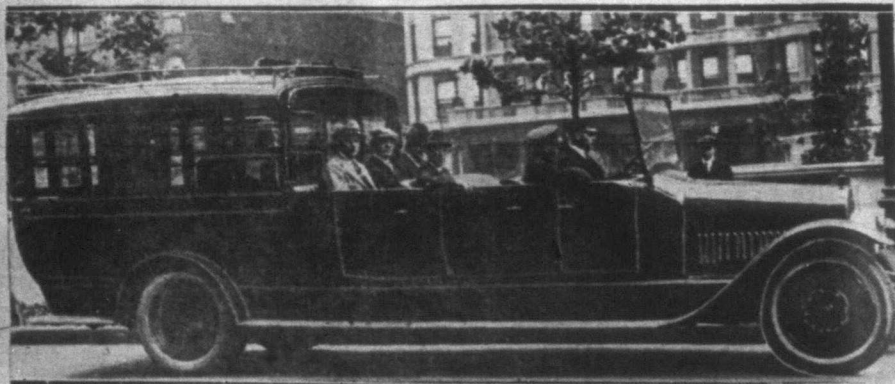

Willard Mack, actor-playwright, and Mrs. Mack No. 4, photographed in Los Angeles.

Marguerite and Ellen Heaney of Brooklyn have left the stage to enter a convent.

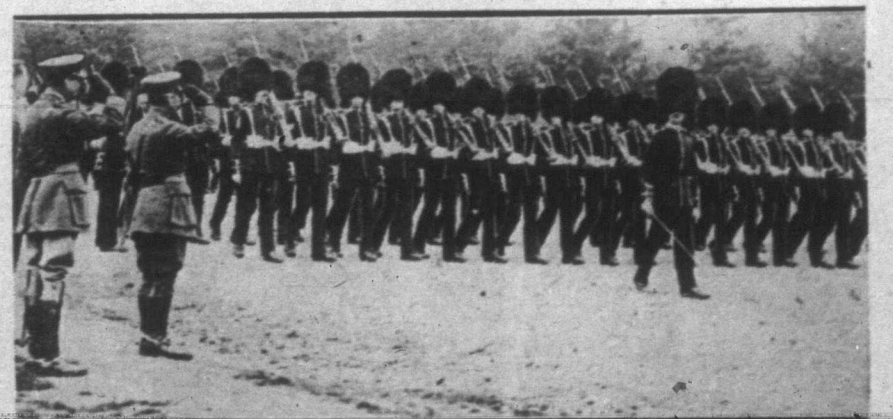

Rear Admiral Counts of the U. S. navy teaches his children to swim. He wants them to be good sailors too.

New type motor bus inaugurated in New York with open and closed sections

Mrs. J. W. Rollo of Atlanta, Georgia, still chops wood, although she's eighty.

Visiting members of the American Legion review a regiment of Grenadier Guards in London.

Prince Asaka of Japan (left foreground) with attendants and ice-picks, preparing to climb the Nippon Alps.

Hindu lancers riding past during dedication at Alep of memorial to British troops who fell during the Turkish campaign of the great war in Syria.