SHOOTS HIMSELF.

Man Leaves Note Giving Instructions Regarding Burial. Vancouver, March 28.-Leaving beind him evidence pointing to one of the most deliberate cases of suicide ever committed in Vancouver, F. P. Vaughan, employed in the engineering department of the British Columbia Electric Railway Company, blew out his brains Saturday on the pipe line road in Stanley Park. In his pocket, among receipted doctors' bills, a clean white linen hand-kerchief and 30 cents, was a piece of note paper, on which was written in a small, neat hand with a lead pencil. the dead man's wishes as to the manner of the disposal of his remains. "I would ask," this dispassionate document read in part, "that no Christian ceremony be performed at my burial, which I wish to be of the simplest character, and which I would prefer to take place in unconsecrated ground. If this is not possible, I would like to be buried at sea." Added to this were further requests that the verdict of the coroner's jury be of England be notified of his death. No reason for taking his contemplated leap into the darkness of the unknown was given in the strange missive
