

3. No student shall have any claim to free tuition or to aid who leaves his classes in any department of the University before the close of the year, without the permission of the Faculty, or who fails to undergo his examination.

4. It is not expected that students having little or no experience in regular preaching or pastoral work shall receive aid while pursuing their first year of study, in any department of the University.

5. The minimum remuneration is assured students the first year of appointment to fields of labor.

6. No special grant is made to students in receipt of the maximum remuneration of $200.

7. Ministerial students in any department of the University are eligible to receive aid, in the regular way, pro rata for summer work.

8. Students during term time are not expected to accept of Sabbath supply of churches except under the direction of the Faculty; and the Ministerial Committee deem it inexpedient for students to supply oftener than once a month.

9. If in the judgment of the Ministerial Committee the circumstances of a student require it, and the funds permit, he may receive a loan on his own promissory note, without interest; it being understood that if the person who has given such note should die, or be permanently unable through illness, to engage in the work of the Ministry, the note shall be cancelled. In any other case the Committee expect the note to be honorably paid, in order that it may be possible for them to afford similar aid, from time to time, to other students.

10. In extraordinary cases, a free grant may be made to students at the discretion of the Ministerial Committee.

11. Students needing special aid are expected to apply to the Faculty at the beginning of the year.

12. Application for aid, from students in any department of the University, will be considered on their merits.
