

THE SORTIE FROM MAFEKING.

Detailed Story of the Successful Fight by the Brave Garrison.

Women Help—Two Members of the Fair Sex Who Shoot Well.

On the Armored Train—British Troops Give Free and Sarcasmic Advice to the Boers—Cronje's Politic Note.

The London, England, Times of October 24 has the following graphic account from its own correspondent at Mafeking of the successful sortie made from that place on October 15, in which the British force lost three killed and fifteen wounded, and the Boers 53 killed and many wounded.

At daybreak this morning the Boers were reported to be advancing from the south, and the whole garrison stood to arms. At 5.35 a sharp rattle of fire was heard from the north, and a galler reported that the patrol under Lord Charles Cavendish Bentinck was in action. The first landing was only a few minutes, and then the armored train, under Capt. Williams of the British South African police and Lieutenant More of the railway station, was ordered to move out and engage the enemy within seven minutes of Bentinck's engagement at the outbreak. The Boers had reported having heard the firing, and about 20 minutes to six Capt. Wilson was despatched to ascertain what had actually happened.

It was found that the enemy had retreated, and the alarm flag was then hauled down and the town guard retired.

The armored train came into action at nine minutes past six. The scene inside it was remarkable. The crew of the leading truck, Firey, consisted of a detachment of British South African police and railway volunteers. Capt. Ashley Williams was in command, Mr. Gwynne was the driver of the engine, and A. Moffat acted as stoker. The second truck was in charge of Lieut. More, an engineer on the Bechuanaland railway. No. 1 truck was armed with a Maxim, and its crew mostly with Lee-Metford. Truck No. 2, the Wasp, carried another Maxim. A third truck, the Gun, carried a Hotchkiss. The crew of each truck numbered about fifteen.

As the trucks steamed past Lord Charles Bentinck's squadron they were received with cheer, some one shouting, "They can't shoot for nuts; go ahead." About two miles beyond Bentinck's men the enemy, some 600 strong, were sighted to the right front of the train, and the leading truck immediately opened fire with the Maxim at 800 yards. The enemy replied with quick-firing guns and their powder Maxim, and in a minute or two both sides were raining bullets. Our men manny every loophole, and as they served their guns rallied the enemy sarcastically as he retired gradually before them. The train advanced steadily, and as the Boers now and again discovered the range and began to drop shells too close, it kept moving up and down the line, to the discomfort of their gunners. Meanwhile the Mauser bullets rattled merrily, but importantly, on the armor of each new discharge or volley being greeted with what our fellows called "gun laughter."

After the engagement had lasted some time, Cronje decided that the armored train should return, and despatched Capt. Fitzclarence with a squadron of men to cover the retreat. The train then retired to good order. The armored train at this juncture was quite unable to assist Fitzclarence, as the enemy were attacking his front and still trying to turn his flank, so that the crew of the train were unable to fire for fear of hitting their own men.

ALL THE WOUNDED SAFE. Captain Fitzclarence was then ordered to retire on Mafeking, but he sent to the train, which formed a sort of base, to say that being hampered with his wounded he could not retreat without reinforcements. The telephone was therefore connected with the railway telegraph message wire, and this message was wired to headquarters. In response Captain Lord Charles Bentinck was ordered to take his squadron and endeavor to extricate Fitzclarence. Meanwhile, our men were behaving splendidly and pressing the Boers hard. As a result of this the enemy abandoned their position a little before midday, thus allowing Fitzclarence, who was unquestionably outnumbered, to begin a retreat in good order.

At this moment a detachment of British South African police, about twelve strong, under Captain Williams, disembarked from the train, and proceeded unarmed with two stretchers to the spot where the wounded had been collected, and brought in those who had been rendered absolutely helpless. Those who were able to do so mounted on horses and rode to the armored train. Amongst them was Lieutenant Brady of Queenstown, though he had been severely hit in the side. All the wounded were safely got into the train without further casualties. Fitzclarence, who had the enemy well in hand during the whole engagement, then commenced to retire on the town, and the armored train triumphantly returned with the wounded at full speed to Mafeking, its crew doing what they could in the way of first aid to relieve those hurt. By luncheon time the red flag was hauled down in the town, and our first scrimmage with the Boers was over.

WOMEN WHO CAN SHOOT. Of the crew of the train only three were hit, one of the British South African police in the leading truck namely Corporal Taylor, J. H. Lodge, a railway man, and a man named Kennedy, none of them seriously. The train proved immensely useful in the engagement, and its crew must have done great execution amongst the enemy. They had the advantage of being able to fire with perfect confidence, feeling themselves secure. The men of the Protectorate regiment behaved remarkably well under a heavy and well-directed fire. The townsmen stood to their defenses all the morning, and there was never a sign of flinching on the part of anyone. So keen is the spirit in Mafeking that amongst the railway detachment, who help to man the Sandilands limits to the north of the town are two ladies, the wife and daughter of a railway employe. They absolutely decline to go to the women's laager, and as both are good shots and love their own Lee-Metfords they are capable of taking care of themselves. During the morning Major Ballew, who endeavored to get through to Fitzclarence with an order to retire, had a narrow escape. He galloped off to reach our right flank and ran the gauntlet of the enemy at about 350 yards. Fire was opened on him and his water bottle was struck. A second or two later his horse was shot in the hindquarters, and he was only able to reach the shelter of the train just in time, his horse being had to abandon, being quite disabled.

BADEN-POWELL COOL. Col. Baden-Powell directed the operations with consummate coolness, while his staff officers were very successful in persuading all despatch riders to assume that air of calm confidence recommended in the pocket book. Mafeking is very quiet tonight, and quite ready to try another fall with the enemy as soon as they are ready.

A courteously worded note from Commander Cronje has been received, while his staff officers were very successful in persuading all despatch riders to assume that air of calm confidence recommended in the pocket book. Mafeking is very quiet tonight, and quite ready to try another fall with the enemy as soon as they are ready.

BURLINGTON. Nov. 3.—Right Rev. Bishop Louis De Goebriand of the diocese of Burlington, for many years the head of the Catholic church in Vermont, died at the St. Joseph home, which has been his residence for several years, this evening at 7 o'clock. His funeral will be held from St. Mary's Cathedral at 10 a. m. Tuesday. The cause of his death was old age.

He was the oldest Catholic bishop in the United States, being 83 years of age and having been ordained for 59 years. He had been in failing health for several years, and in 1898 gave up the active work of the diocese, requesting that a coadjutor be appointed.

HOPE FOR CONSUMPTIVES. (Fall Mail Gazette.)

The report of the medical registrar of the North London Hospital for Consumption, Hampstead, printed by the committee of management, states that 182 cases of consumption have been treated on the open-air principle since January last. Of these 7 per cent. left the hospital to return, in the majority of cases recovered; 32.3 per cent. distinctly improved; 7.6 slightly improved; 4.3 did not improve, and 3.9 died. It is stated that it is a common occurrence for patients to enter the hospital with extensive signs of disease, and to leave, after nine or ten weeks, with no sign of active disease, and an increase of a stone in weight. Practically all cases were treated under the treatment. A proportion of these go to convalescent homes, and nearly all return to work. A large number of the patients kept up a correspondence with the medical staff, and none of these who marked recovered and followed out the hygienic principles taught there has shown any sign of relapse.

G. H. Mitchell, the Canadian government agent in Liverpool, writes to the department of trade and commerce requesting tenders from Canadian manufacturers of hop poles for some English firms.

"I feel as if I should fly to pieces." How often those words are on a woman's lips. They express to the uttermost the nerve racked condition of the body, which makes life a daily agony.

If this condition had come suddenly it would have been unbearable. But the transition was slow and gradual. A little more strain each day on the nerves. A little more drain each day of the vitality. Any woman would be glad to be rid of such a condition. Every woman tries to be cured by Dr. Pierce's treatment with his "Favorite Prescription" when local doctors had entirely failed to cure.

Sick women suffering from unpleasant drains, irregularities, bearing down pains, inflammation and ulceration are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., by letter free of charge. Every letter is guarded as a sacred confidence. All letters are promptly answered and mailed in private envelopes without printing of any kind upon them.

"Favorite Prescription" is the full-blown, a temperance medicine containing neither alcohol nor opium or other narcotic in any form. Accept no substitute.

Mrs. Rena Hessel, of Massillon, Stark Co., Ohio, writes: "I had been afflicted with chronic constipation and female weakness and doctor after doctor had failed to relieve me. I thought I would try your medicine, and I am cured by your medicine. Took one bottle and I feel like a new woman. Take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and two of his Golden Medical Discovery, and I can say I am cured by your medicine. Took one bottle and I feel like a new woman. Take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets as a perfect cure for constipation."

COUNTERFEITERS.

Thrap Men Arrested in Nova Scotia on a Serious Charge.

A Clever Scheme to Circulate Bogus Two Dollar Bills—Two Former I. C. R. Men Implicated.

AMHERST, N. S., Nov. 7.—Two men, Arthur Stewart and Neil Barkley, both of Macaan, the latter being an I. C. R. telegraph operator, are in custody here charged with circulating counterfeit two-dollar bills, and the telegram received here announced the arrest of the two men. Stewart and Barkley were charged with circulating counterfeit two-dollar bills, and the telegram received here announced the arrest of the two men. Stewart and Barkley were charged with circulating counterfeit two-dollar bills, and the telegram received here announced the arrest of the two men.

Detective Skeffington, in company with Officer Jones, arrested Stewart at Macaan. From information received from Stewart, officers Jones and Skeffington arrested Neil Barkley, telegraph operator, on whom was found $152 in counterfeit twos. Barkley admitted receiving two hundred dollars from Stewart, which he had taken in Halifax of Chisholm, formerly baggage master on the I. C. R., and he was brought here tonight and will be put on trial with the other two men.

St. Philmore's carriage factory at Southington was destroyed by fire last evening. The loss is about five thousand dollars; insurance two thousand.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

How They Do Things in Madawaska. To the Editor of the Sun:

Sir—For the first time in the history of the province, the last election was not run on political lines. That means that the issue was between Mr. Costigan and Mr. Poirer, who were the only candidates in the county. The election was a very close one, and the result was a very narrow one. The issue was between Mr. Costigan and Mr. Poirer, who were the only candidates in the county.

Perhaps the stiffest fight in the county since the place of Edmundston. The Costigan party were elected, but the Poirer party were elected. The election was a very close one, and the result was a very narrow one. The issue was between Mr. Costigan and Mr. Poirer, who were the only candidates in the county.

As soon as the announcement was made that the crowd went wild with cheering. In fact, the election was a very close one, and the result was a very narrow one. The issue was between Mr. Costigan and Mr. Poirer, who were the only candidates in the county.

Still further down the road, the election was a very close one, and the result was a very narrow one. The issue was between Mr. Costigan and Mr. Poirer, who were the only candidates in the county. The election was a very close one, and the result was a very narrow one.

Several others gave expression to their feelings of satisfaction, after which every body withdrew, delighted with the result of the election. The election was a very close one, and the result was a very narrow one. The issue was between Mr. Costigan and Mr. Poirer, who were the only candidates in the county.

AN ELECTOR. To the Editor of the Sun: Sir—On account of the recent change in the law of the province, the election of the electors of Hammonds has been delayed.

There were three candidates seeking the suffrage of the people, of whom one, R. C. C. had the most votes. The election was a very close one, and the result was a very narrow one.

U. N. B. TROUBLE.

Sentences of Suspension Reduced at a Meeting of the Senate.

Two of the Professors Have Resigned, and Another Has Stated His Intention of Doing—Several Students Say They Will Withdraw.

FREDERICTON, Nov. 7.—The University senate met again tonight to further consider the recent trouble at the college, and their action is embodied in the following: A resolution was introduced, the preamble of which, after commenting on the custom that has long prevailed at the University of subjecting the freshmen class to initiation ceremonies, commonly known as "hazing," and citing the many abuses of the present practice, and the danger to life and limb of the victims, after detailing the particular incidents connected with the present case, resolved that the members of the senate, at a special meeting, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from their authority, have the result of effectually enforcing discipline in the future and at the same time permit the freshmen students to take their examinations, and if elected to the senate, should confer with the members of the faculty, with a view to inducing a majority of that body to make such alterations in the punishment imposed as would, without in any way infringe their dignity or detract from