Pte. Fred Wolfe Killed in Action

Was One of Three Sons of Mr. and Mrs. J. Wolfe, of Moore Street, Serving Their Country—Killed by Machine Gun Shot—Letter from Brother Brings the Sad News.

A GALLANT TRIO.

George, Fred and James Wolfe—Three sons of Mr. and Mrs. James Wolfe. The one seated is Fred, who was killed in action.

A letter received by the mother of the former 26th Battalion, while the three Wolfe boys, Mrs. J. Wolfe, James is doing his part in No. 5 Army Service Corps.
Pte. Wolfe leaves to mourn, besides a mother and father, a wife, six children, the oldest of whom is eleven years, four brothers and two sisters. The two brothers at the front, one, John, in Montreal, and Albert of this city. The sisters are: Mrs. A. Daley, West End, and Sadie at home.
Though words are inadequate to console those who mourn the loss of a dear friend, yet there is consolation in knowing that the deceased soldier played a manly part in the hour of need and made the supreme sacrifice in order to protect the principles for which the Empire stands.

SAW WHALE IN HARBOR LAST WEEK

West St. John Fishermen Saw Giant Fish Almost Opposite East Side Ferry Dock.

Fishermen from West St. John were treated to a rather unusual sight in the harbor last Thursday afternoon, when a large white whale made its appearance among them. Speaking of the occurrence yesterday George Fawcett, a fisherman from the West End, informed a Standard reporter that he, with other fishermen, witnessed it. Mr. Fawcett says that they were all tending their nets in the harbor where they were drifting for salmon, when suddenly in the middle of the harbor, and almost opposite the east side ferry docks, this large white, or light grey whale made its appearance on the surface. It showed about twenty feet of its back out of water. Fred Silphant and his fishing mate Rolston, started toward the whale in their motor boat. The whale then started down the harbor at great speed showing now and again as it plunged through the water. It continued out of the harbor and into the bay and has not been seen since.

While this may sound like a fish story, Mr. Fawcett is sincere in his story, and says that any of the other fishermen, especially Messrs. Silphant and Rolston will corroborate him.

Mr. Fawcett, who is one of the best known fishermen in the harbor, and who has been working at this line of business for a long time, further states that about twenty years ago a white or grey whale made its appearance in the St. John fishing grounds and remained in these waters during the entire winter.

According to the new American Encyclopedia the white whale is known as the beluga (Delphinapterus leucas) and is an arctic whale occasionally seen as far south as the St. Lawrence. Evidently this one travelled a little farther south than usual.

SCHOOL BOARD PETITIONS TO ISSUE BONDS

CONDUCTOR ARRIVES MINUS HIS VALISE

Grip Containing Papers, Tickets and Some Personal Property Mysteriously Disappears from Train.

When the express arrived in the depot yesterday afternoon at 6.10 o'clock, J. L. Ohlsholm, the conductor, discovered that some person had taken his grip from the train, either by mistake or intentionally. The grip contained some personal property, along with some government railway papers and a book of tickets, which are issued by conductors on trains to passengers who have not purchased tickets in the office. The grip is described as being of brown rough leather, red lined and about eighteen inches long. Conductor Ohlsholm did not discover his loss until the train arrived in St. John, and it is thought that some passenger, who left the train at one of the stations between St. John and Moncton took it. As the contents are of no value to any other person than the conductor, it is hoped that the person who took it from the car will leave it with one of the station agents, and no questions will be asked.

Riding on the train from Moncton, and seated near where the conductor had placed the grip, were two men who had been allowed to go from the Moncton jail. They had been arrested in the railway town a few days ago and gave their names as William O'Hara and James Smart. They are attired in grey suits of clothing and left the train at Sussex. It is thought that perhaps one of these men took the grip by mistake when he left the train.

TORRYBURN THE MECCA OF THOUSANDS

Bishop's Picnic as Popular as Ever and Outing Yesterday a Splendid Success.

The Bishop's picnic which was held yesterday at Torryburn was, to say the least, a grand success. The children, numbering over six hundred, headed by the City Cornet Band, headed to the depot yesterday morning. The weather was perfect and the day passed without a mishap of any kind to mar the enjoyment of the day.

The regular trains carried quite a large number to and from the grounds as well as the picnic trains. Autos and teams were everywhere in evidence along the road between here and the grounds carrying holiday seekers.

The regular amusements and field sports were carried off and the refreshment booths all report "a good country business."

Among the clergymen who attended were: His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc, Rev. M. P. Howland, Rev. H. L. Coughlan, Rev. W. Duke, Rev. H. Belliveau and Rev. J. J. Walsh.

Gundry's are showing a large range of small Diamond Rings at very low prices. One lot at $12.00 is a wonder. These are nice clean white diamonds of good size set in 14kt. gold. They are bligger and better than you will get elsewhere for $12.00.

Work will be opened at the meeting in St. John tomorrow.
